From,

Judge, Small Cause Court, Madras.

To, The Deputy Accountant General of the Government of Madras.

Sir, In reply to your letter of the 14th Instant, I have the honor to state that the duty of the applicant as sealer was to stamp with the seal all processes issued from this court.

2 It appears from the record of this court that in the year 1862 there were two appointments the salary of each of which was Rs 18 per mensem, and the applicant was holding the second place. On the retirement of Streenevassiah, late Assistant Clerk and Cashier, in January 1862, Allangatta Pillai who held the first place of Rs 18 was appointed acting warrant writer on Rs 20 per mensem and the applicant was promoted to his place. These and other appointments were then made acting, and the officers were not confirmed in their respective appointments till 1st October 1862. On first September of the same year, Seetharam Naidu returned from sick leave, and being then unable from ill health, as he represents, to discharge the duties of summons writer he was allowed to perform the less difficult work of acting sealer on 16 Rs per mensem at his own request as appears from his affidavit herewith forwarded and since promoted as vacancies occurred.

3 The above facts will, I think, sufficiently explain the two points referred to in para 2 & 3 of your letter under reply. I have the honor to be

I do hereby solemnly declare that in the year 1862 there were two appointments on 18 Rs held by Allangatta Pillay and myself, the former being my senior. On the retirement of Streenevassiah Iya, Allangatta Pillay was appointed acting warrant writer on 20 Rs and I was promoted to his place as acting summons writer on same salary, although I received no increase to my salary, I was eligible for a higher appointment when a vacancy occurred. In June 1862, I obtained leave on medical certificate and returned to duty on 1st September 1862 when I was unable to resume my duty as summons writer being then in a weak state of health. At my request the Clerk of the Court allowed me to do the duty of sealer on Rs 16 from which post I have been since promoted.
