CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in ^{inferior} grades has been duly proved for 6 years 9 months and 12 days; and that a ^{pension} ~~deposition~~ ^{gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 130 equal to his monthly salary is admissible under Section 57 of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

The applicant was suspended on the 1st March 1866 pending enquiry into the complaints presented against him as Salt Superintendent of Chagavully and he remained under suspension till 16th June 1866 when he was degraded to the post of Amin of Chagavully.

He was degraded to the post of Amin of Chagavully on the 1st March 1866 pending enquiry into the complaints presented against him as Salt Superintendent of Chagavully and he remained under suspension till 16th June 1866 when he was degraded to the post of Amin of Chagavully.

It is said in the above quoted paper that simultaneously with the abolition of the Mining appointment, the position from which applicant had been degraded viz that of Salt Superintendent of Chagavully was also abolished, but on enquiry the assertion turns out to be unfounded.

On being deprived of his post in the above stated manner in July 1866 the applicant remained out of permanent employ for ten months. It rests with Government to decide whether the break is to be treated as caused from dismissal for inefficiency (which is what it seems to amount to) or from abolition which is the view the collector takes. On the first case applicant who is now superannuated would be eligible for a gratuity of six months pay viz Rs. 180 in the other for a gratuity of ten months pay or Rs. 300.
