To,

Accountant General to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

In returning herewith the Pension Register and its enclosures received with your letter of the 21st July 1870, I have the honor to state that the full name of the applicant required by No. 4. is inserted in the Register.

2. The services of the applicant, as given in the Register, are proved from the records.

3. The applicant had completed his service of 35 years, and as, on account of his old age and consequent inability to serve longer, he was nearly useless, his application for permission to retire was accepted by the Head Assistant Collector who forwarded the same to this Office on the 16th March 1870. Although the Head Assistant Collector had found the man quite unfit for duty through physical incapacity, yet as a medical Certificate was essential to support the application for Compassionate allowance, he was, on the 26th March 1870, directed to appear at this Office. As soon as he came, I sent him to the Zillah Surgeon, who gave him the certificate on the 22nd April 1870.

was

4. He has not drawn pay during the interval between the date of his retirement and the date of the medical certificate.

FROM THE DEPUTY ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

VIDE your Application for pension on behalf of Anthony D'Souza.

THE undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points.

1. How was the applicant's name entered in the Annual Return of 1865 and in the Pension lists of subsequent years.

2. Why the applicant's ser[illegible] from 12 August '40 to 31st December '62 in an Extra establishment was held qualifying.

(a). Was he transferred to it by his then Official Superiors?

(b). Was he allowed to retain a lien on his appointment in the regular Estt. while employed in the Extra establishment.

(c). Why was he not allowed to resume his original appointment when he ceased to do duty in the Extra establishment.

(d). What was the reason of the termination of applicant's applicants' service in the Extra establishment.

(e). Was service in this Extra establishment ever held qualifying - if so, such precedents should be pointed out.

Reply

1. He is called "Anthony" in the Returns for [illegible]65 to 186[illegible]. In 1868 he is named "Dodda Anthony" or the "Senior Anthony" because it appears there were two peons of that name on the Taluk Establishment. In 1869 the same name is given. In 1870 he is called "Dodda Anthony D'Souza". In 1871, 1872 and 1873 his name is entered as "Anthony Souza."

2. Because such Establishment, though nominally temporary, appears to have all along been regarded as permanent; and in fact it continued till the new Police was introduced.

(a) He was promoted.

(b) No record to show this; but had the Establishment been abolished his claim to revert to some post on the regular establishment would undoubtedly have been taken into consideration.

(c) Because there was no necessity for it, he having been provided with a higher situation in the Revenue Establishment and because his former post was not then vacant.

(d) Abolition of the Establishment.

(e) Yes. For precedents please refer to G.O. dated 21st September 1870, No. 490, sanctioning compassionate allowance to one Mahomed Isoof whose case is analogous.

No. 1005. South Canara Collector's Office

From,

A. McC. Webster Esquire,
Collector of South Canara.

To,

The Hon'ble D. F. Carmichael
Ag Chief Secretary to Government, Pension Department.
Fort. St. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit, for the sanction of Government, the accompanying application for an Invalid pension due to one Anthony D'Souza, late a peon borne on the Revenue Establishment of this District.

2. On the 1st July 1873 Anthony D'Souza, who was employed in the Mangalore Taluk, applied for pension on account of incapacity for further service from old age and infirmity, and asked that the post might be conferred on his son. On the 27th September 1873, the Tahsildar submitted his application for the favorable consideration of the Divisional Officer. Some correspondence ensued regarding the fitness of the son and the appointment was otherwise filled up in January 1874. In the meantime Anthony D'Souza having died on the 5th November 1873, the Tahsildar through a misconception considered it no longer necessary to forward a formal application for an Invalid Pension on his behalf, and the matter was thus entirely lost sight of in the Taluk, until the applicant's widow filed a petition in this Office claiming the amount of Pension due to her late husband, and the Tahsildar's attention was thereupon drawn to the matter.

3. Some time was then lost in causing a search to be made for the applicant's service book which had been given ~~to~~ him to be filled up, but had not been returned by him. It has not however been found, and the Service List has therefore been prepared from the Pay Bills.

4. Under these circumstances I trust the Government will be pleased to overlook the delay that has occurred in submitting this application, and sanction the payment to the deceased's widow Joana D'Souza of the amount of pension, Rs. 12-8-„ due to the deceased from 1st July 1873 the date on which he ceased to do duty from incapacity for further service to that of his death 5th November 1873.
