Memo:

In reply to the annexed enquiry, the Acting District Judge has the honor to state that it appears from the statement of A: Gurunada Rao, Record Keeper of this Court that the present applicant was sweeper in this Court from 1841 to 20th October 1874 and therefore that the entry of the applicants' name as Syed Madar in the annual returns from 1861 to 1866, was a clerical error. His proper name, on his own statement, is Sheik Madar but he is sometimes called Madar Saib.

The date of the applicants' birth is not known, he says he is unable to give it. A Gurunada Rao aforesaid remembers him in 41 as appearing to be 25 or 26 years of age but he appears to me to be older than this statement would make him. He has scars of burning between his eyebrows and on both temples. He has a wart below the right eye. No service book of the applicant has been kept in this Court. The Peons list for 1873, is enclosed.
