Statement given on solemn affirmation by Amjan Masalchi before the Deputy Tahsildar and 2nd Class Magistrate of Salem Town on the 16th June 1875.

I was appointed a Masalchi in the office of Deputy Collector of Namcal Division in June 1860. After a month I was transferred to the Salem Treasury Deputy Collector's Office and remained there till November 1862. When the Sub-Magistrate's office was established in the Salem Town, I did duty as Masalchi in it. I have thus served without any break. This fact is known to my contemporary peons named Murmouth Saib and Sheikhussane. In 1836 I was taken as a peon in the Hosur Taluq but did duty in the Huzoor for 2 or 3 years. Afterwards I was thrown out on the reduction of Establishment. My relatives were then admitted as Masalchi and 2 Peons. For about 5 or 6 years whenever they absented themselves from their duty I used to act as substitute. I was permanently entertained as Peon in Denkenicottah but did duty in the Huzoor as Masalchi for 5 or 6 years. I was doing duty until the reduction of Peons. The said Murmurti Saib, one Chennappen employed at Denkenicottah, and Venkatasubbanaicken Pensioned Head Constable know this fact. I don't know the exact date of my birth. My age is about 59 and upwards.

When the Salem Town Sub-Magistrate's office was established during the time of the Deputy Collector Mr. Boalth, he was taken in as Masalchi to that Office. I was also appointed as Peon in the same about that time and was doing duty with him. I don't know if he were appointed a Peon about 30 or 35 years ago: but I hear that he served as Peon for a long time.

Question. Do you know one Anujan Employed as Masalchi in the Salem Town Sub-Magistrate's Office?

Answer. Yes. I know him. I distinctly recollect that about 35 years ago, when I was Peon in the Huzoor, the said Anujan was entertained as Peon on a monthly salary of Rupees 3½, but did duty as Masalchi in the Huzoor for about 20 or 25 years. After I had left Huzoor on some other appointment I don't know what appointments he held.

I have heard the yadast or memorandum from the Deputy Tahsildar of Salem Town read to me.

I was entertained as Huzoor Peon during the time of Mr Cockburn. About 5 or 6 years afterwards during the time of Mr Orr, the said Sanjaw, residing in Sevoipett of Mara Caste, was entertained as Huzoor Peon. We both were doing duties at the same place for 7 or 8 years. I was afterwards transferred to Oossoor Taluq. It is about 37 years since I have been so transferred. I never saw him in the meantime. I don't know if one Sanjaw who is now employed as Duavalchi in the Salem Town Deputy Tahsildar's Office is the same man.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward an application for Invalid gratuity on behalf of Nunjen, Lamplighter in the Salem Town Sub Magistrate's Office, and request that you will be so good as to submit it for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. In the Pay Abstracts of July 1831, the name of Nunjen occurs, but as the records prior to that have been destroyed, it is now impossible to ascertain when the Applicant was originally entertained. He himself is unable to give the exact date of his first appointment.

3. Subsequent to 30th November 1836, Nunjen's name does not appear in the Pay Abstracts, and he explains this by saying that he was removed an

on the reduction of Establishment. The decrease in the number of peons on the establishment of the Oossoor Tasildar in the following month seems to bear out the truth of the Applicant's statement, but there are no records forthcoming in this Office, from which we can infer why he was discharged.

4. There is a long break of 23½ years between 30th November 1836 and the date of his subsequent re-entertainment. The Applicant avers that during this period, he held several acting appointments, but as these are neither borne out by the records nor admissible as qualifying service, they are omitted in the Application

5. Nunjen's services in the Dy Collector's Office have not been verified, as the records of that Office have been destroyed, but it is generally known that he was so employed.

6. The Applicant's Service Register herewith accompanies. Orders for his removal having been issued after the receipt of the enclosed Medical certificate, there is a difference of 2 days between the date of his retirement and that of the certificate

7. The delay in submitting this Application arose from the difficulty experienced, as explained above, in verifying Nunjen's services, which extended over a period of nearly 44 years, but as his qualifying service amounts to only a little more than 20 years, I recommend that he be granted a gratuity of 6 months pay.
