Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 28th Ultimo, I have the honor to report that J. B. Noronha, the applicant therein named, being now absent from Mangalore, (having proceeded long ago above the Ghauts), I am unable to state my opinion regarding his fitness for further service, before examining him personally. The information required will be forwarded when he shall return to Mangalore. A copy of his application, which explains the delay in making his application earlier is herewith enclosed.

Subordinate Judge of South Canara.

The Petition of Joao Baptista Noronha, late Head Writer of the Subordinate Court of Mangalore, under date the 17th June 1874.

Respectfully sheweth,

That your Petitioner having served as Gumasta, English Writer & Translator in the Civil Court & Collector's Office, & as Head Writer in the Assistant Judge's, Principal Sadr Amin's & Sub Judge's Courts, was thrown out of employment on the 17th July 1873.

2. That the Court Register would vouch for his qualifications & good character.

3. That your Petitioner has to support a large family, who entirely depend on the Government bounty.-

4. That your Petitioner requires a very short period to entitle him to full pension, if his extra services of 6 years be excluded. He represented this circumstance to the Sub Judge Mr. K. Kunjan

Menon

Menon, but he did not take it into consideration

5. That that Officer in organizing the Establishment of this Court appointed your Petitioner as 2nd Writer, but unfortunately his appointment was not sanctioned by the District Judge.

6. Your Petitioner waited up to this time on this Court in hopes of getting some appointment, but seeing no prospect, he now makes this application for pension.

Your Petitioner therefore prays that on consideration of his faithful services, of the fact of his being removed at the abolition of the Principal Sadr Amin's Court where he was employed & of his Extra services for 6 years in the Civil Court, your Honor may be pleased to report his case for the favorable consideration of Government & to obtain for him the full pension authorized by the rules, to commence from the 17th July 1873, on which date he was removed; for which act of kindness your Petitioner will, as in duty bound,

Ever pray.

With reference to the foregoing Memo and the reply to it dated 23rd February 1875, the undersigned has the honor to report that the applicant who had proceeded to Ghauts, appeared before him on the 15th Instant, and the Civil Surgeon was at once requested to examine him and certify his opinion regarding the applicants fitness for further effective service.

2 The certificate furnished on the 22d Instant, which is herein enclosed, declares the applicant "not fit for service of any kind, or of a writer in the Department to which he belonged, in consequence of nervous spasms of the muscles of the hand."

12a

3 The applicants contemporaries also were, as suggested in the foregoing Memo, examined as to the state of his health at the time of his removal from the service; and it appears from their statements, which are herewith submitted, that the applicant was in a good state of health at the time, and performed the duties of Head Writer, in the late Court of Principal Sadr Amin, as well as in the present Court, until the new Head Writer joined his appointment on the 6th July 1873; and that there was no change in the quality of his hand writing.

4 I have also examined his hand writing, and though he does not appear to be a good, fair-copyist, I think he could, with that handwriting perform such work as stated by his contemporaries. But now he appears to have been much reduced both in his health & body, - either from fever to which he is said to have been subject occasionally during the last 2 years, or from the uneasiness of mind & fatigue of the journey he undertook to the Ghauts, after his removal from the service – and looking to the actual state of his health, I do not think that he will now be able to do any hard work.

Certified that I have carefully examined J. B. Noronha Son of J. Noronha 2d Writer of the Sub Judge's Court, in the South Canara District. His age is by his own statement 50 years, and by appearance about 53 years. I consider J. B. Noronha to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further Service of any kind or of a writer in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of Nervous spasms of muscles of the hand. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been, caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

I know J. B. Noronha who was the Hd. Writer of the late P. S. Writer, and he did so also, until S. Warriyar joined his appointment as Hd. Writer on the new Establishment. Till then, he was in a good state of health— The work he performed as Hd. Writer, was making drafts of ordinary letters, em -paring fair copied decrees, examining

Bills and accounts, and on some occasions making also fair copies of letters. There was another writer who was making fair copies of decrees. Noronha did not appear to be wanting in strength until he was removed from his post. The style of his hand writing was the same as before until he was removed from his post.

I have heard what has been

R. W. Lodwick Esquire

Sir,

I have the honor to submit an application for pension on behalf of J. B. Noronha, who was employed as 1st English Writer of the late Principal Sadr Amin's Court up to 30th June 1873, and 2d Writer of the present Court up to 16th July following, when he was discharg-ed from service.

2 The Applicant claims pension,
because he has been removed from the Service. He is not aware of the reason thereof, except that his appointment to the post of 2d Writer in the newly organized Establishment was not sanctioned by the District Judge. He appears to have been dismissed from the service by a

verbal intimation, without any record being made to show why he was discharged; and the subsequent proceedings of my predecessor leave the matter in such a doubtful way of question, that he cannot claim pension either under Section 47, or 49, of the Pension Code.

3 The Applicant held the post of 1st English Writer of the late Principal Sadr Amin's Court, on Rs. 30 per mensem for several years up to 30th June 1873; and on forming the Establishment, increased in consequence of the abolition of the Additional Principal Sadr Amin's Court, he was nominated to the post of 2d. Writer on Rs. 31½; the post* of Head Writer having been given to a man named Wariyar. But the Ag. District Judge, Mr. Burnell, objected to the appointment of Wariyar to the Head-writership, and proposed a fresh arrangement. Accordingly Wariyar was appointed 2d. Writer, and the Applicant was left without any appointment, and on the receipt of the Government

Pay Rs. 50

M

Sanction to Wariyar's appointment as Head Writer conditionally, the post of 2d. Writer was given to [illegible] the Small Cause Court abolished [illegible]

4 T[illegible] Judge's sanction to the arrange[illegible] was received by my predecessor on the 16th July; and the Applicant, it appears, was then informed that he should not attend the Court from 17th July, because he had no footing on the Establishment thenceforth. Upon his appealing to the District Judge, Kunjie Menon was referred to for his opinion regarding the Applicant's fitness, and stated that he had no good opinion of his fitness, and considered him insufficient for the present work, because his hand shaked; that he had once nominated him to the post of 2d. Writer, not because of his fitness, but because of his having been on the Establishment, and that he quite agreed in the manner in which the District Judge had disposed of the matter.

5. If the Applicant was unfit for any appointment, I cannot understand how he was allowed to hold the post of 1st English Writer for a long time until the Establishment wa[illegible] d & when there were less han[illegible] to [illegible]; or how he could be nominated to the post of 2d Writer on the new Establishment, notwithstanding his unfitness:- and if the fact of his having already been on the Establishment was considered a sufficient reason to warrant once his nomination to the post of 2d Writer, it is equally unaccountable to me how the same reason failed, when a second arrangement was made in the manner above mentioned. The Establishment, to which the Applicant was attached, was increased, and not reduced or abolished. Consequently Section 47 of the Pension Code cannot apply to his case. On the other hand he has not been discharged, as he should have been, if unfit for service, upon a medical certificate; nor does the Service Register, or any other record contain any remarks &c against his physical or mental fitness. His case therefore, does

N

x Mr. G. Proceedings dated 1st December 1873 No. 1893-

not fall under Section 49. As, however, the arrangements made & reported have been approved x by Government, and as the Applicant cannot be now left without a pension, it rests with the Government to decide under what section he is to be admitted to it.

Total period of actual service _ 22-1-2
Breaks — 1-1-5
20-11-27

6 The total period of the Applicant's x Superior Service, after deducting the breaks &ca. amounts to 20-11-27; and the amount of pension to which he would be entitled under Section 47 or 49, is Rs. 10, equal to one third of his monthly pay Rs. 3

He had also served as Extra Writer continually for 6-4-15; and I hope his long service and the way in which he has lost his situation, will be taken into consideration by Government, in determining the amount of pension payable to him.

7 The Applicant put in his application on the 17th June 1874 with the Service book; which not being complete was returned for the omission being supplied. It was produced again on the 29th October. In the meantime, the Distric

R

Judge and Collector were requested to verify the correctness of the entries in the history of his service, so far as related to his service in the Civil and Assistant Judge's Courts, and in the Collector's Office. Their replies were received on the 8th and the 29th October, and then the entries relating to his service in the Principal Sadr Amin's Court, were examined & compared with the records.

8 The History of the Applicant's service, with the Service Book and the Leave statement appended to it, are herewith forwarded.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No. 233

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 21 years 2 months and 21 days; and that a {pension / ~~gratuity~~} not exceeding Rs. 10-"-" per mensem, equal to 1/3 of his average pay is admissible under Section 47 or 49 of the Civil Pension Code. (The sub Judges calculations have been duly verified) according as Government may decide with reference to the circumstances detailed in the sub Judges letter No. 2100 of 19th December 1874 accompanying.

(2) The applicant was not certified by a Medical Officer to be unfit for further service at the time of his removal in July 1873 as stated in the letter above cited. His contemporary employés depose that the applicant was not unfit for service at the time of his removal - Vide their statements accompanying.

(3) A medical certificate of incapacity has now been obtained dated 22d June 1875 and is herewith submitted. . . . .

(4) The delay on the part of the applicant in the submission of this application is explained in para 6 of his petition to the Sub Judge accompanying.
