Deposition given on Solemn affirmation by Mahomed Sileiman an inhabitant of Cocanada

While I was a Golla in the Huzur, about a month ago I applied for pension having become old. The period of my service in-cluding of the service on the Extra-establishment amounts to 40 years. I recollect it to be 1835 in which I was entertained as an extra peon in the Ramachendrapur Taluk on Rs 3-8-" a month. This post I held for about 2 years. I was afterwards employed as an extra peon in the Pittapur Taluk Katcherri on Rs 3-"-" for 10 months. I was then put as a substitute for a peon in the Collector's Huzur Establishment on Rs 5-"-" per month. I recollect it was in April 1838 that I was employed as a peon on 4 Rupees on the Frontier Station permanent Establishment at Nilapalli. I held the latter post for about 2 years and 6 months. From this I was transferred to be a peon on the Sea Custom Establishment on the same pay. I remember having held this post for 12 or 13 years. From this I was transferred to Kottapalli Taluk. I was there for about 5 or 6 months. The pay was 4 rupees. I was changed to Kota Ramachendrapur Taluk as a peon on 4 Rs pay per month. From this post I was transferred to be a Police peon on the Coringa Division Establishment on 5 Rupees per month by Mr Prendergast. I continued in this post for about 6 or 7 years. While holding this post, I was reduced on the 24th March 1862 on which the arrangement of Taluks was carried out. I was out of Employ for 2 or 3 days. I was afterwards Employed as a peon on the Karapa Salt Establishment on 5 Rs pay for 7 or 8 months. In the revision of the Salt Establishment I was dispensed with. I was without employ for 2 or 3 days. I was then appointed Sea Custom peon in the Coringa Division. The pay was 5 Rupees. I held this post for about 1 year. During this period I was once put to watch a ship. On the ground that I landed from the ship without permission I was suspended for 2 months. At the close of the suspension I resumed my post. From this I was promoted to be a peon on 6 rupees on the Nilapalli Frontier Establishment. I held this post for 4 or 5 months drawing the pay of 6 rupees. I was afterwards promoted to an attender's place on 7 Rupees on the Angur Establishment. I held this for about 3 years. From this I was promoted to a gollah's post on 8 Rupees. I held the same until I applied for pension. There are no breaks other than those above stated. I have no written documents to prove the period of my service. Witnesses Rama Sambhadu and Ramalal. I have heard the deposition & it is correct

Deposition given by Pramulal Huzur attender on solemn affirmation

I know Mahomed Sileman a Huzur Golla who has applied for pension. His service might have been about 40 years. When he was entertained in service I was a volunteer in the Huzur for a peons post. 2 or 3 years after his entertainment in the service, I was employed. Mahomed Sileman was first appointed a frontier peon at Neelapalli on Rs 4 per mensem. I do not recollect how many years he held it. He was afterwards made a peon in the Sea Custom Office at Coringa on a salary of Rs 4. He was thence transferred to Kottapalli Taluk as a peon on a salary of Rs 4 per mensem. From this he was changed to a peon of Ramachendrapur Taluk on Rs 4. He was afterwards made a police peon of Coringa Division on Rs 5 per mensem. While he was holding this post he was reduced in the arrangement of Taluks. He was without employ for 2 or 3 days, when he was appointed a peon in the Salt Division of Karapa on a salary of Rs 5. Having been again reduced in the revision of the Salt establishment, he was, without employ for 2 or 3 days. He was afterwards appointed a peon in the Sea Custom office at Coringa on Rs 5. He was thence promoted to an attender's post in the Huzur on Rs 7 and Ultimately to a Golla's place on a salary of Rs 8. I cannot say the details how long he served in each of the appointments above mentioned But on the whole he might have served about 40 years. He was never suspended. I

Your arzi No 5 of the 7th instant has been received. You have stated therein among other circumstances that the peons Mahomed Silaman and Buddanamurti deputed to watch over the ships "Maddatu Hyder" and "Sri Venkataswarulu" respectively had been absent from their respective ships when you had been to them for inspection on the 6th idem.

For the fault of Mahomed Silaman for not immediately returning to the Ship and even until you inspected her at 3 O'clock P M on the 6th instant although he left her on the evening of the 4th instant on public business, he is suspended for 2 Months from 12th idem.

As for Buddanamurti it is observed that he had not only left the ship without permission, but did not also return to her even until 11 o'clock P M of the 6th instant when you went to the ships for inspection.

From this it does not appear that he has left the ship with an intention of returning to her during the night.

For this fault he is suspended for one month from the 12th instant.

I have appointed Varra Ramaswami extra Gumasta of your division vice Mahomed Silaman suspended. Ananda Padmanabhan to act for Ramaswami and Varra Venkanna for Buddanamurti suspended. Their names are therefore to be shown in the Pay abstracts accordingly.

The Acting peon and the extra peon shall be employed in performing the duties connected with the Sea Customs department and two peons of your Division should be deputed to watch the ships instead of Mahomed Sileman and Buddanamurti.
