Honored Sir

I most respectfully beg to bring ^ your kind notice that I am one of the unfortunate men thrown out by the recent reductions in the Secretariat. I held the post of a Clerk for the space of 10 years 1 month and 28 days – 4 years and 2 months of which period, I was attached to the Military Prize Dept.

To enable me to draw the full amount of gratuity for the entire period of my service under Government, it is necessary that my service in the Prize Departt. should be reckoned, which can only be done under the sanction of Government. The Pros: of Govt., numbers & dates as per margin, are quoted as instances in which a concession was made in behalf of those who served in the Prize Department.

I most humbly request you will kindly obtain the necessary sanction in my case. Being in distressed circumstances consequent on the loss of my appointment, as well as the transfer of my father to the pension list by the recent reductions, the grant of the indulgence solicited will will be esteemed by me and my family as a very great favor.
