Pensions.

Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to
L. A. CAMPBELL, Esq., Under Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 10th August 1875, No. 302 :—

Audit Department.

With reference to G.O., No. 435, dated 28th July 1875, I have the honor to point out that only an invalid gratuity is admissible to Pulladon Vencatasubbi Chetty as reported by this office in No. 22, dated 2nd June last, since the rules regarding fifty-five years of age were not in force at the time of the applicant's retirement. Further, the service of the applicant as Shroff on Rupees 15 per mensem is inferior, vide Section 39 (h), hence superannuation gratuity is inadmissible to him. I request therefore that the designation of the gratuity granted may be altered into invalid.

ORDER THEREON, 6th September 1875, No. 512.

It is observed that the term "Superannuation pension or gratuity" was in use under the old rules by which the gratuity in question was determined, but the Accountant-General is at liberty to substitute that of "invalid gratuity," in order to avoid misconception. His remarks as to superannuation gratuities not being admissible to inferior servants have no application since the Civil Pension Code was not in force at the time of the applicant's retirement.
