Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter N^o 362, dated 5th July 1875, submitting a request by the Government of Madras, for a reconsideration of the reasons assigned by the Government of India in my letter N^o 932, dated 19th May 1875, for overruling the decision of the local Government refusing to admit the claim of Mr. J. Garrett to superannuation gratuity on retirement from his office as Canarese Translator.

2. I simply am desired to observe that in considering Mr. Garrett's claim to gratuity in respect of his service as Canarese Translator, the Government of India did not overlook the fact that the Government of Madras had refused to admit the claim on the ground, that Mr. Garrett's whole time was not retained for the service of the Madras Government. Indeed in paragraph 2 of my letter of the 19th May 1875, the ground of the decision of the local Government was noticed.

3. The Government of India did not, however, assent to that decision. Although his whole time was not retained for the service of the Madras Government, yet Mr. Garrett was required to devote his whole time as a servant of the State to the duties of his offices.
