From the Acting Master Attendant, Administrative Department, dated 15th September 1875, No. 5984.

From the Deputy Accountant in charge of the Office of Accountant-General, dated 9th October 1875, No. 409.

ORDER THEREON, 1st November 1875, No. 630.

Under Section 28, Clause 2, and Sections 53, 56 (b) and 57, of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. John Rose, late Head Clerk, Executive Department, in the Master Attendant's Office, a superannuation pension of Rupees (33-5-4) thirty three, Annas five and Pies four per mensem, to which he is entitled for his qualifying superior service of twenty-four years and twenty days, payable from the 1st September 1875.

2. In accordance with Section 29, Clause 1, of the Pension Code, a moiety of the retiring allowance in the present case will be debited to Marine Imperial, and the remainder to General Port Fund.

3. With reference to the recommendation for the grant of a "half pension" to Mr. Rose, His Excellency in Council sees nothing in the case to justify its being exceptionally treated.

occasions by the Head of this Department, and the terms in which they were spoken of show the high estimation in which they were held by his superior. Since my assumption of the charge of this office I am enabled to endorse the same, and I would submit respectfully that, from his long and faithful service, good character and conduct, he has earned a claim to favorable and special consideration to his being granted a half pay pension, which he now seeks.

3 I would now advert to this office letter No 4722, of date 21st July 1843, wherein it was solicited that Mr Rose might be allowed the benefit of his service previous to the break at the end of 1843, and that he might be permitted to refund the gratuity of 100 Rupees he then drew. The Accountant General, in his report on that letter, dated 6th September 1843, says "Mr Rose seems to have served in the Master Attendants office

"officer from 1st July 1838 to 31st January 1844.
"as Comisphy and writer, on a salary of ³³
"Rupees 10 a month, and as Writer in
"the Emigration office, on Rupees 20 a
"month, from 16th February to 31st December
"1843; but he continues in para 4 that
"none of these services can count for pension
"in addition to service subsequently rendered
"in the Master Attendants office from
"1st July 1851, as he then drew not more
"than Rupees 10 per mensem". The Account
General evidently overlooked the fact that from 15th February to 31st December 1843 Mr Rose drew Rupees 20 a month, and was therefore entitled to count these 10 months and 17 days as superior service.

4 Mr Rose's Service is as follows.

From 1 st July 1838 to 31 st January 1844	Master Attendants office Comisphy and Writer	Rupees 10 - 4
16 th February 1843 to 31 st December 1843	Emigration Office. Writer	20 - -
1 st October 1850 to 31 st June 1851	Merchant Seaman Registration office	35 - -
1 st July 1851 to 31 st May 1857	Master Attendants Office Manager	46 1/2 - 6
1 st June 1857 to 31 st August 1859		60 - 2
1 st September 1859 to 31 st December 1863		86 1/2 - 4
1 st January 1864 to 31 st August 1875	Head Clerk	100 - 1
Total Service		317

5 The service previous to the break at the end of 1843 is 5 years, 5 months, and 13 days, and that subsequent to it is 24 years and 20 days, exclusive of 10 months and 10 days absorbed by leaves of absence. According to the Accountant General's report, the former does not count, as the salary drawn by Mr Rose was only Rs 10 per month, but he latterly drew Rs 20 a month as shown above, and the gratuity granted him was on this pay, allowing six months' emoluments for each completed year of service, for the full period of 5 years, 5 months, and 13 days, thus treating the whole as superior service. This indulgence having been once granted, Mr Rose craves that he may now be allowed the benefit of it, so that he may be qualified for a half pay pension, as the total period of his service will then be 29 years, 6 months, and 3 days. It may be observed that the break was owing to the abolition of office, which does not, under the Rules, cancel his previous services.

services. I would therefore solicit the sanction of Government to the refund³⁵ of the gratuity of 100 Rupees drawn by Mr Rose in 1844, and conclude by strongly recommending his case for the favorable consideration of the Honorable the Governor in Council, as I am of opinion that he has fairly earned the pension he now claims by his long and faithful services.

6 The amount of his pension will be divisible in equal proportions between Imperial Marine and the General Post Fund.

I have the honor to be
