,, Collector of Coimbatore.

Explanation for delay : ✓

This application reached the Collector's Office on 23rd March 1874. On examining it, the necessary explanation for the deficiencies found in it was called for & received only on 30th October 1874. Some further search was made in the Collector's records about the applicant's service at Colmar, & Mund, but as no records appear to be forthcoming in it, this delay had occurred in submitting the application after only verifying his service in the records.

The applicant's name is mentioned as Hansen Beg, in all the Pay abstracts from the beginning. In the Service Book also, his name is entered as Hansen Beg, no house or country name being anywhere given in it. Consequently his name is entered so in the application prepared for pension.

Translation of a deposition given on oath on 5th October 1874, before the 2nd class Taluk Magistrate of Baroor, by Siddarama Naiken, son of Thiva Naiken, residing at Baroor, Vokkalika Caste, Pensioner by profession and aged 70 years.

I was appointed as Hozyoor Daloyet in the Sub-Collector's office of this District before 1830, and continued to work in it: Sometime after, this Hassan Beg was appointed as Hozyoor Daloyet. From that time, I and he had been continually serving in the capacity of Daloyet without any interruption. I am unable to name the exact year, month and date when I obtained Pension in the year 1860. The above Hassan Beg was never suspended or dismissed from the date of his entertainment up to 1860. I do not know what took place about his case after I was pensioned. I heard this read is correct.

Mark of Siddarama Naiken.

He was appointed as Dalayat and afterwards as Hoozoor Deffadar.
The exact year, month &c are not in my recollection.

Mark of Siddaramanaiken.

Translation of a deposition given on oath on 5th October 1874 before the Tahildar and 2nd Class Taluk Magistrate of Baroor by Musthafa Saib, son of Shaikh Maidan Saib, Muzalman caste, Hoozoor Attender by profession, and aged 47 years.

I was appointed as a Dalayat in the Sub-Division Hoozoor of this District in the year 1847. Before this date, Hassan Beg, my maternal uncle, was appointed a Deffadar in the said Hoozoor. Since my appointment, I and the said Hassan were serving continually in the office without any interruption to December 1873. He was not at any time either suspended or dismissed was continually holding his sitation. I heard the list received th the Hoozoor order, now read t to me. There is no doubt of Hassan Beg having remained in Government Service in those months.

He died in the list after 1847. He died the 10th July 1874.

The first wife of Hassan is Budden Bee. She is the man whom he married. She has children. Hassan Beg and his nephew and my younger brother Saikh Nabee; he married one Maasah Bee about 20 years ago as his second wife, after his first wife fell ill. At this period, his first wife died. The second wife also had no issue. About 15 years ago, he and his second wife both jointly adopted one Sahan Beg as their foster son. This individual is now employed as a Dalayet in the Sub. Division Nozoor. The second wife of the Duffadar also is now living.

Hussam Beg's elder brother, who was called Ahmed Beg, was then living and afterwards died. He left no issue behind him. His widow Pathamsah Bee is still living. The above Ahmed Beg's foster son is Amer Beg who is now alive. I heard this read and it is correct.

Translation of a Deposition given on solemn affirmation by Hassan Beg, late Duffadar of the Subcollector's office, aged 69 years.

I was entertained in public service in about 1824 or 1825. The month and date of appointment are not in remembrance. The post of Bundachar Peon on $3\frac{1}{2}$ Rs. pay was first given to me in the Taluk of Octacamund. After remaining in it for about 5 or 6 years, I was made a Duffadar of that Taluk on a salary of Rs. 5-4-0 a month. I was afterwards appointed a Dalayet on a monthly salary of Rs. 7 in the Coimbatore Principal Collector's office, in the 4th month of January of the year 1828. Exact date not in remembrance. From this appointment, I was transferred Hopsan Beg Daffadar of the Sub Collector's Dologeto is an old & meritorious public servant. I have known him now for nearly ten years and can give him a very high Character. For his years he is a wonderfully active man but I have continued to make his service as easy as possible for him & I hope my successor will do the same. I can answer for it that he will never be found to shrink his duty

Hassan Beg, Daffadar on the establishment of the Subcollector of Coimbatore has been in the public service in an humble Capacity since, he tells me, the days of Mr. Anstruther, and he now presents a very venerable appearance. When I joined the District he proposed retiring but I gave him leave for a couple of months, and since then have made his work as easy as possible so I have heard no more about his retirement. He is very quiet and respectful and I have been much pleased to visit him. When he does retire I trust a belt may be given to one of his sons.

Hassan Beg, Daffadar of the Coimbatore Subcollector's office, is a man deserving of the greatest respect and Consideration.
He is a public servant of fifty-five years standing and during the whole of this period he appears to have deserved & obtained the good opinion of his superiors. It appears almost superfluous for me to add that I have been perfectly satisfied with him.
