Lahid No. 197-

Lahid from E. Turner Esquire Acting Head Assistant Collector turned to Kallur Kristna Row Lahid of Charkapur.

Read your order No. 226 of the 18th Instant recommending that the appointment held by Revenue Peon Bandigi Saib may be given to one of his relatives. I have examined the persons recommended for the post.

Of the two persons produced by Bandigi Saib, one is a police Kattubadi of the village of Adhavadu and he should continue in his present employment. The other Shik Hussan who is unemployed is appointed Peon instead of Bandigi Saib. Shik Hussan's name should therefore be entered in the pay abstracts &c.

The applicant was produced by the Collector to retire from 25th November 1874. The service was first prepared in the Sal Lake, and sent to the Registrar. The necessary examination in the Registrar was made by May 1875. The service list was then sent to the Registrar, for verification and which was received from that District on the 31st August 1875. The service of the applicant being in the 1st grade, its verification is difficult and naturally takes much time.
