The statement No 1 now submitted shews the Receipt on account of Value Postage in South Acre during 1850/51 to have exceeded the disbursements by 323-10-3, and as this result, compared with those of the two previous years has arisen from the judicious arrangements suggested by Mr J. Bird and sanctioned experimentally for one year on the 7th May 1850 the Right Honorable the Governor in Council authorizes the continuance of those arrangements.

Buzer Tappal Gunosta

From the report received by me from the Treasury Deputy Collector on the result of his enquiry into the missing of 7 half notes to the value of Rs. 180 sent to the Buzer Treasury by the Tasilidar of Vrida-chellam Taluk on the 17th March last, it appears clearly that you were negligent in the matter. As it is very necessary that you should be subjected to punishment for having acted improperly in such an important affair as this, you are hereby suspended for six months. The suspension will date from the day

The enquiry held before me in the trial of one. Moragosen for stealing at Tindivanam a Baggy parcel containing Postage stamps in transit between Cuddalore and Trincomoly has elicited facts reflecting gravely on the management of the Tappal office both at the Hoogoor and at Tindivanam. The evidence points to much suspicion against the Gammasta of the Tindivanam office and at all events the inference is undoubted that not for his grievous neglect of duty and want of proper oversight of the packets received by him, a theft of the kind could not have been committed, indeed so strong was the

See in the 6th 18

the suspicion raised against this Goomasta at the trial, that at one time I contemplated making him a prisoner with Mowagaw. But there being no direct proof of his complicity in the theft, the full benefit of the doubt was given him and it only remains to consider what punishment should be inflicted for the gross carelessness on the part of this Goomasta through which alone the Banghey parcel could have been abstracted by ones wholly unconnected with the office but who was so improperly and unauthorisedly got regularly employed by the Goomasta as admitted by himself in his statement before the Court.

There

19-71
There is reason to believe that the prisoner was accustomed to do the entire duties of the Dist.
Post office at Tindivanam and that everything was frequently entrusted to him enabling the Goomasta to absent himself.
Under these circumstances dismissal would not be too heavy a penalty but as he is an old servant in the department and the guilty has been discovered and conviction had, I resolve to suspend the Tappal Goomasta of Tindivanam for one year for his very culpable negligence and remissness in the conduct of his duties through which alone the theft of the Banghey parcel was effected.

As regards the Head
Goomasta

Gumasta at the Hoogoor office it is not the first time that his inattention to his duties has been brought to my notice and the enquiry on this trial further develops his laxity and carelessness and it would clearly seem that he is in the habit of deputing his work to his Gumasta and that he is frequently absent from his post throwing on the Gumasta the responsibility and duty which strictly belongs to himself. I consider that an example is called for in order to stir up all the District Post Establishment to a due sense of what is required of them and it is believed that many of the Gumas-tas leave to others and even to strangers

21-71
strangers (comradors) to carry on the duty which strictly they alone are competent to perform and in this way their own individual responsibility is lost sight of and set aside and when letters or papers are lost or missing it is impossible to fix the liability on any one. This state of things in an office of the kind must not be allowed to continue, the Hoogoor Gumasta is therefore suspended for 3 months and a copy of this order will be furnished to all Post Gumastas throughout the District in order that each may in future understand their individual responsibility for all that goes on in the Dept. entrusted to their management
