Translation of an order issued by the Head Assistant Collector of Guntur District to Yeturu Subbayya Sunnutdar of Kondavidu Mootah dated 6th December 1853.

On perusal of the explanation given by the Tahsildar agreeably to the Hukum issued regarding the examination of the individual receipt books and of the books brought in at the time of the distribution of Cowls, your statement that you have completed the examination of all the books of the Villages appertaining to the Mootah appears to be false. It is further observed that you with a view to preserve your situation, only affixed your signature at the foot of a few books belonging to the ryots who attended to receive their Cowls. For example you did not enter the dates with your signature in the books to show that you had examined them, though it was your duty to do so. There is sufficient room to doubt that you have signed at the foot of the receipt books without comparing them with the daily chitta and Abstracts to shew that you have examined them after the Tahsildars issued orders regarding the examination of the books in question. Though you are therefore now to be dismissed for this offence, yet you are for the present excused and suspended for one year from this date, Vangala Appalacharyulu being appointed to act for you. you will therefore deliver over to him the charge of the entire Mootah, and obtain from him a receipt for the same.

Translation of an order issued by the Head Assistant Collector of Guntur District to Yeturu Subbaya, suspended Samutdar of Kondavedu Mootah Dated 9th December 1854

As you have been suspended for one year from 6th December 1853 for the offence of not having completely examined the books of individual receipts of the Villages appertaining to the Mootah in last Fasli 1263, it is reported that the term of your suspension has expired on the 6th Instant. You are therefore reappointed from this date to the Samutdarship of the Mootah in question. You will as soon as this order reaches you, proceed to the Mootah, resume charge of your office from the Acting Samutdar who was performing the duties of that Mootah and granting him a receipt, continue carefully to perform the circar duties.

Kistna District Collector's
Kacheri at Masulipatam
30th December 1875.

From,
The Collector of Kistna District.

To,
The Accountant General
Madras.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith an application for pension in behalf of Yetur Subbayya, late Gumastah of Guntur Talug, I have the honor to report:—

1. That the Vasireddi Estates were attached for arrears of revenue in 1842; those of the Malrange family, in 1832. Both these Estates remained under the management of Government until April 1846; when a public auction having been held held, they were purchased in behalf of Government. A permanent establishment was sanctioned in December 1846 and was entertained in February 1847.

2. That the applicant did not appear before the Collector until September last. It would appear that both himself and his wife had fallen ill, the latter having died subsequently. Hence the delay.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obd^t. Servant

Collector.
