vide your docket dated 25th January 1876.

The notification referred to was lost sight of.
It is now recommended under that notification that an Invalid Pension of Rs. 2.80 per

It cannot now be ascertained why the Postal Establishment was not entered in the May 1865 is not forthcoming in the records, and it does not appear that any such Roll was sent before 1866. A Copy of the List for 1875 is submitted.

The order which necessitated the abolition of the Applicant's appointment on the 2nd July 1874 is that of the Post Master General and not a Govt. order marked B and C of letters
