Read the following papers:—

From the Commissary-General, Madras, dated 10th February 1876, No. 7466.

From the Controller of Military Accounts, dated 4th March 1876-C.

ORDER THEREON, 20th March 1876, No. 179.

The applicant, Chengeeverayenpettah Vencatasamy Naidu, is one of the Commissariat Clerks who declined to go to Abyssinia in 1867. On his action being brought to the notice of Government, it was ordered that due consideration should be given to his conduct hereafter in fixing the rate of pension. The Commissary-General recommends that the penalty should not now be exacted, as the applicant has since then afforded satisfaction in the discharge of his duties when acting as Agent of the Salt Kotar.

2. His Grace the Governor in Council, however, declines to pass over the misbehaviour of C. Vencatasamy Naidu, and, under Section 60, Rule I., of the Civil Pension Code, directs that his pension be fixed at Rupees 7-8-0 per mensem, or three-fourths of the maximum pension to which he would have been entitled under the Pension Code, with effect from 26th January 1876.

Honored Sir.

With reference to your honor's docket, No 8838, dated 21st January 76. I most humbly beg to inform your honor that I had appeared before the Med. Officer, as ordered, who pronounced me unfit for further service and has sent in a certificate to that effect.

In accordance to your honor's memo No 8940 dated 25th January 76, I have made over my duties to another man, who was appointed to relieve me.

I respectfully beg to submit the following circumstances and to solicit your favourable support of the request herein made.

It is now nearly 10 years since I have been appointed as the Comt. Agent Salt Cotar.

In this capacity I had to attend early in the morning to sometimes 8 to 9 O clock at night. I was obliged to give up all holidays - Christmas - New year and Good Friday being the only days that I have been able to avail myself of the indulgence of rest. I had goods passing through my hands Viz. Commissariat, Ordnance, Clothing and Medical to the extent of several lacks of Rupees and was held responsible for their proper classification the weight, and correct despatch, which will be substantiated by a reference to the above Departments. No complaint had ever been made against me from any Department & I had endeavoured to protect the interests of Government in their transactions with the Railway. It would take more time than your honor would afford, were I allowed to enter into the particulars connected with this portion of my duties but an example will I trust suffice.

I had before me a case which would show the saving that I had effected for Govt. by carefully checking the Railway receipt for goods and I forward 3 Railway receipts in which the goods were so classified by the forwarding Station master that the fare amounted to Rs 1845-6-" by on examining the goods I found that they had been incorrectly classified. I therefore pointed out the same to the Goods Cler and had the goods reweighed & reclassified which reduced the fare to Rs 1081-7-" thus making a saving to Govt of Rs 763-15-", and such had occurred several times but did not bring to your honor's notice.

I further beg to inform your honor that I am an old sickly man of large family of 11 souls depending me and that I have no other source to depend upon and I am obliged to retire for pension owing to the bad state of my heal I therefore humbly request your honor will be kindly pleased to take my deplorable case into your honor's most favourable consideration and to recommend me to the Comry General for one-third pension without any reduction as my bad state of health had prevent me some years ago from proceeding to Abyssinia and I beg now to forward my service book and also my certifica of character &c as shewn in the margin (to be returned when no longer required). For which act of kindness I and my family shall ever pray.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Military Department.

No. 388. Read the following papers :—

From the Acting Commissary General	Here enter 30th Sept. 1867, No. 4786.
Memo. from do.	,,	15th Oct.	,,	,, 5263
From Mr. T. Yettie, late 2nd clerk of the Executive Commissariat Office, Bangalore.	,,	22nd	,,	,,

From the Acting Commissary General, Madras, 30th September 1867, No. 4786; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government the following circumstances, which lately occurred in connection with the nomination of certain clerks of this Department, for service in Egypt, agreeably to the Order of Government, No. 3509, dated 16th September 1867, and, considering the case of importance, I would respectfully solicit an expression of the views of Government regarding it, for future guidance.

2. The clerks were selected for their known acquaintance with certain duties, in which their experience was sure to prove valuable on the particular service on which they had been detailed, but I much regret to have to report that four of the number disobeyed orders and positively refused to proceed on that service.

3. They could offer no valid excuse, and were therefore directed to attend at once to the call of duty or resign.

4. The establishment had been carefully organized in reference to the duties likely to be required of it, as detailed in the letter from the Secretary Military Department, Bombay, and the refusal of these men to go on service caused so much inconvenience, even although at the last the establishment was not required, that if their conduct were to be overlooked now, it is likely, on some future emergency, the Department might be crippled from a similar cause, its efficiency much impaired, entailing serious consequences and great inconvenience.

5. The annexed list shews the length of service of these men, which in one case amounts to upwards of 18 years, and discharge becomes a very heavy punishment after so long a service, yet I see no alternative, if a recurrence of this kind is to be prevented, but to visit the offence with heavy punishment for the sake of example. Should Government however consider dismissal too severe, then I would suggest the reduction of second class clerk Mr. Yettie to the bottom of the list of third class clerks, and the reduction of the pay of the fourth class clerks to two-thirds of their present rates ; but, for the future, instant dismissal should be made the penalty for refusing to obey orders to proceed on Foreign Service.

Armoogum Moodelly, Head writer, Tonghoo.
Soobramanien, Deputy writer, Rangoon.
Ramasawmy Naidoo, Head writer, Masulipatam.

6. In striking contrast to the behaviour of these men, I bring to notice the conduct of the parties named in the margin. The two first, now on leave here from Burmah, at once volunteered to join the establishment required for Egypt, and were appointed to Suez and Alexandria respectively. The third had only returned from Burmah about 2 months ago, and, on understanding that the service was important, at once expressed his readiness to proceed, although at considerable inconvenience to himself.

Madras, 30th September 1867.

No. 389. Memorandum from the Acting Commissary General, Madras, 15th October 1867, No. 5263; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George.

With reference to memorandum, dated 2nd October 1867, from the Secretary to Government, Military Department, the Acting Commissary General has the honor to state that on a reference to the Departments in which the clerks C. Vencatasawmy and A. C. Armoogum are employed, it is represented, that they having been in the service prior to the receipt of the Order of Government, No. 422, dated 6th February 1863, and thrown out of employ on the reduction then effected, they were not considered subject to the conditions therein imposed, and consequently no agreement was taken from them on re-entertainment.

2. Soobunnah was entertained at Secunderabad in September 1864, and no agreement was obtained from him, which is accounted for in this way—that the Circular giving effect to the Order of Government on the subject was not issued until the 4th November 1865.

No. 390. From Mr. Thomas Yettie, late 2nd class clerk of the Executive Commissariat Office, Bangalore.

Forwarding a Memorial addressed to Government, praying to be restored to his situation. } Here enter 22nd October 1867.

No. 391. Order, No. 4411, 13th November 1867.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council observes that the embarrassment which the Acting Commissary General Colonel Loudon now reports, seems to proceed mainly from Departmental neglect to act on the Order of Government 6th February 1863, until the 4th November 1865—two years and nine months subsequent to the issue of the Order—notwithstanding that it was one specially affecting the Commissariat branch of the Army.

No. 422, paragraph 3.

2. This reprehensible irregularity, and the improper omission to demand the prescribed written engagement from C. Vencatasawmy and A. C. Armoogum, on their re-employment in the Department, now prevent the Government from dismissing those subordinates and V. Soobunnah, as they deserve.

Para. 3. It being, however, altogether inexpedient to overlook the disobedience of orders exhibited by Mr. Yettie and the clerks above named, the Governor in Council directs that it be intimated to them, that due consideration will be given to their misconduct hereafter in fixing their rates of pension. A record of their offence and of this decision will accordingly be made in their respective "registers of service," care being taken to bring this Order specially to the notice of Government in submitting their applications for transfer to the Pension establishment.

4. The four clerks will accordingly be re-instated from date of suspension or dismissal.

5. His Lordship in Council notices, with approval, the behaviour of the clerks named in the margin, and will be glad to learn they have been rewarded by suitable promotion as early as convenient.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Military Department.

6. Referring to the Medical Certificate granted by Dr. Penny to clerk Armoogum Moodelly at Bangalore, the Government resolve to request the attention of the Inspector General Indian Medical Department, to the apparent facility with which it was granted, and thereby enabling the clerk to evade the order of his Departmental superior, Captain Hewetson, to proceed to Madras.

7. On the 24th September Dr. Penny certifies Armoogum Moodelly to be "in a weak state of health, &c.," yet, on the 27th idem, this person himself informs the Acting Commissary General that he is "now cured," and waits for orders to proceed to Madras. It is note-worthy also that Captain Hewetson reported officially to the Commissary General, that he deemed Armoogum Moodelly quite capable of discharging the executive duty for which he had been selected.

Memorandum for Orders.

The applicant C. Venke-tasawmy Naidu was one the Commissariat Clerks who refused x to go to Abyssinia. The Government ordered that "due consideration will be given to their mis-conduct hereafter in fixing their rates of pension." The Commissary General recommends that no penalty should be exacted, as this man has afforded every satisfaction in the performance of his duties during the period he was entrusted with the responsible charge of the Commissariat agency at the Madras Salt Cotars. Orders are solicited.
