I have perused your Arzi of 21st Instant in which you promise among other things to behave yourself in a respectful and becoming manner towards your superiors: and do now reappoint you to your post. You will therefore resume charge of office from Sheik Reza Hussain hitherto

Recd. No. 12389/16

No 1360.

To

The Salt Superintendent of Manganaudi.

The salt Deputy collector addressed me a letter No 88 dated 10th Instant, stating that he commenced to examine the salt-heap No 36 which was stored by you in the current year, in connection with the platform No 1 of your Rotar; that when his Head Clerk was examining the machine at first under his orders for the purpose of weighing the salt, you said to the Head Clerk "you must assist me too in the same manner as you did to the Deputy Collector", and that you have often said in disrespectful terms to the Deputy Collector "go on! do injustice & irregularities".

As you have thus conducted yourself, it appears that the work of salt-weighment was impeded. You are therefore suspended until further orders. You are directed to deliver the charge of your office, over to the official whom the Salt Deputy collector may appoint and furnish satisfactory explanation for your conduct towards the Deputy Collector in the manner above referred to.

No. 1541

Chowhe' Raimaprasad
Salt Superintendent of Maugenapudi Division.

The Salt Deputy Collector having again reported that you have disobeyed his orders and behaved disrespectfully, you have been suspended from 15th June.

You have promised in my presence that if you are restored to your situation, you will be careful and more diligent & that you will not in future render to the Deputy Collector, either trouble or annoyance.

I have consulted the Salt Deputy Collector on the subject.

Considering particularly of your long service & previous good conduct I resolve to restore you to the Salt Superintendent's post of Maugenapudi, on your promise of regularly conducting yourself in future. Therefore you will at once proceed, take charge of the same, & look after the duties as before.
