From the Acting Judge of the Small Cause Court, Cuddalore, dated 4th April 1876, No. 59.

ORDER THEREON, 1st May 1876, No. 253.

Rungiah Naick, lately a Head Messenger in the Small Cause Court of Cuddalore, was discharged as unfit for further work after a service of twenty-eight years, seven months, and twelve days. Of this term, a period of sixteen years, four months, and eighteen days prior to the 16th December 1863 has been disallowed, as he is stated to have been dismissed on that date. Looking to the nature of the fault for which the applicant was dismissed by the Judge of the Small Cause Court at Cuddalore, and to his subsequent re-employment in the same post after the lapse of six months and twenty-six days, His Grace the Governor in Council is of opinion that the period during which he remained out of employ is a sufficient punishment, and is pleased to cancel the order of dismissal, treating the break as a period under suspension, and accordingly to admit Rungiah Naick to the gratuity of Rupees (63) sixty-three, or six months' salary.

From the enquiry made on the Petition of the Plaintiff in Suit No. 1644 of 1863 complaning that the Defendant who was prepared to get the Suit withdrawn, refused to do so through the instigation of the Head Messenger, it was clearly proved by 4 Witnesses that the Head Messenger had connived with the Defendant and instigated him not to put in a Razinamah in the Suit, and that he took upon himself to interfere in duty which rightly appertained to the Court alone. The Nazir's report of the 4th December 1863 also confirmed this opinion. For these reasons, the Head Messenger Rungiah Naick has been dismissed from the Service.

Certified that I have carefully examined, Rengiah Naick son of Govindoo Naick, (Duffadar) in the Court of Small Causes. His age is by his own statement 70 years, and, by appearance about 70 years. I consider Rengiah Naick to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age & debility. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

FROM THE Asst. ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE Acting Judge of the Small Cause Court

VIDE your Application for Gratuity on behalf of Rungiah Naick.

THE undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points-

1. Why is the applicant shewn to have been a permanent Head Messenger from 12th July /64 while from the Annual Returns of 1 May /65 & peons list for 1866 he appears to have been only Acting Hd. Messenger.

2. If he was a permanent Messenger from 12th July 1864. please state:-
   (a) whether the post was a full vacancy, and how it was caused-
   (b) whether the applicant was allowed full pay of the post, till he was confirmed in it. and what was the date of confirmation.

3. If the post was not a full vacancy and the applicant was only ~~an~~ acting incumbent of it, where was the permanent holder of the applt. & was he counting service in it till the date of applts. confirmation in his acting applt.

4. For what period of Service is the applt. recommended to a gratuity equal to three months pay.

If the applt. acted in a full vacancy from 12 July /64. and was confirmed in it he will be entitled to a gratuity equal to four months pay for his service of 10 and less than 15 yrs.

W Donald
Asst. Accountt. Genl.

In No. 207 of 1876

The Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Cuddalore has the honor to state that as the Applicant was continuously employed as Head Messenger from 12th July 1864 the date of his Acting appointment & then confirmed, he has been shown to have been a permanent Head Messenger from that date. He was only an Acting Head Messenger from 12th July 1864 though the post was a full vacancy caused by his dismissal from Service. He was allowed full pay of the post till he was confirmed in it on 1st September 1866. His service was inadvertently reckoned as 5 years and less than 10 years from 1st September 1866 on which date he was confirmed though it should have been fairly counted from 12th July 1864 the date of his Acting appointment in which case he will be entitled to a gratuity equal to 4 months' pay as pointed out by the Assistant Accountant General.
