Honored Sir,

With due respect and submission I beg leave, by order of Surgeon Major Edward Balfour, Late as Secretary Madras Exhibition, to present these following few lines to Your kind Consideration.

While I was employed in the Government Agents Office at Chepauk the above Gentleman had been pleased with and transfered me to the Madras Exhibition Office in the Year 1860 and then, by order of the Honorable the President of the Madras Exhibition Committee and as per Resolution No. 14 of the Madras Central Committee for the London Exhibition of 1862 dated 7th June 1861, ordered me to manage both duties of the Madras and London Exhibition Offices mentioning that I will be adequately paid.

There were two persons formerly employed only to conduct the business of the Madras Exhibition Office on salaries of Rs. 40 and 20 respectively, and, since my entertainment I am conducting the duties of that Office as well as these of the London Exhibition Office. As I am giving every satisfaction to Your Goodness and bringing up the arrears of the Madras Exhibition Office besides the curre works and also being responsible in the Accounts and answerable to the most important business, I therefore humbly beseech that Your Goodness will be graciously pleased to bestow on me a temporary salary of Rs. 40 per mensem.

For this act of Kindness I shall always feel very grateful.

21st. November
1861

I beg to remain
Honored sir,
