RESOLUTION by the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 17th March 1876, No. 1,518.

Read endorsement of the Public Works Department, No. 374 E. G., dated 6th March 1876, on a letter from the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 2,224 E., dated 18th September 1875, inquiring whether gratuities to relatives of workmen, killed in the execution of public duty, should be charged to the works on which the men were employed, or to the Civil Department.

RESOLUTION.—A pension or gratuity awarded under the rules of the Civil Pension Code to a public servant injured, or to the relatives of a public servant killed in the execution of his duty, should, under all circumstances, be recorded in the accounts under the Civil head "Superannuation allowances." But compensation awarded, under special rules applicable to State Railways, for the death or bodily injury of a person not a public servant caused in the working of a State Railway, should be charged as part of the working expenses of the Railway concerned.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the Public Works Department, and the Comptroller-General.
