D. H. Carmichael Esq.
Secretary to Government
Most Honorable Sir

The humble petition of P. Sahayale Naicker, Late Inspecting School Master of Salem, now residing at Gaidathan

I humbly respectfully

That your petitioner was forced by Leprosy that attacked him to apply for pension on Medical Certificate on the 1st Decem^r 1874 from which date up to this time passed more than a year without bringing his poor case to the kind notice of Government, and he permitted by his horrible sickness he would be by this time on his knees before your Mercy's feet to express personally the hardships he ~~is~~ met with in maintaining his family that contains 9 souls during the year; but, alas! he was prevented by his cruel sickness from doing this; your poor and pitious petitioner, therefore, implores most humbly and respectfully your Majesty that the Heaven enriched with power to succour the distressed like it; to take his pitious case into its consideration and bring his pious application before Government and get it sanctioned.

Your petitioner being in duty for ever remains Sir

Your most obedient and humble servant
