Read the following papers:—

From the Collector of Madura, dated 9th March 1876.

„ the Accountant-General, dated 10th April 1876, No. 2.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd May 1876, No. 316.

His Grace the Governor in Council resolves to apply to the Government of India for the grant of an invalid pension of Rupees 3-8-0 per mensem to Othai Sing, late peon, Collector's Office, Madura, whose total service amounts to thirty three years, six months, and sixteen days.

2. Under Section 92 of the Civil Pension Code the applicant is debarred from reckoning his service prior to 9th May 1860, he having failed at the time to refund the gratuity of six months' pay, Rupees 42, granted under date the 23rd July 1863, whereby he forfeits a period of twenty-two years, three months, and sixteen days. His net qualifying service is thus reduced to eleven years and three months, and he becomes entitled to an invalid gratuity of four months' pay, or Rupees 28 only.

3. It appears that applicant, a common peon, did not, through ignorance of the rules, refund the gratuity received by him on his reemployment in August 1864. If he had refunded the amount, he would now be entitled to an invalid pension of Rupees 3-8-0 per mensem under Section 63 (b) of the Civil Pension Code as recommended by the Collector. Under the circumstances, the Government are of opinion that as an act of grace the strict letter of the Rules may be set aside in the interest of this old servant of the State, and that he may be permitted to refund the gratuity already paid to him, and be granted the pension solicited.
