Para 1. By Agem Gunastah is meant a Gunastah on the regular permanent establishment.

Para 2. Theppusami Iyer is a native of Madurai and the letter M was adopted as his initial letter. But as it does not denote his house or family name and was not used either before or after the period mentioned, it has not been now prefixed to his name.

Para 3. Although Theppusami Iyer was allowed to retire from the 1st November 1875, the Ag Sub Collector sent in his application for pension only on the 8th December, after verifying his service. I then found it necessary to take affidavits as to his service as Muramukh Gunastah in the Shavangungah zemindari which only reached the office from the Sub Collector's on the 5th February 1876. I then had to obtain some further information and then to prepare the application. Hence the delay.

The Service Book is herewith returned after obtaining the signature of the Applicant's immediate Head of the Office in Columns 9 and 12 on the 3rd page. The periods of leave obtained by him have already been noted on the last page of the Service Book.
