ORDER THEREON, 14th June 1876, No. 375.

Under Sections 53, 56 (c), and 57 of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition), His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sackarai Venkata Row, late 6th English Accountant in the Collector's Office, South Arcot District, a superannuation pension of Rupees (10) ten per mensem to which he is entitled for his qualifying superior service of twenty-nine years six months and two days, payable from the 1st April 1876.

2. It is observed that the amount of the average salary of the applicant for the last five years, as entered in the Register submitted by the Collector of South Arcot, differs from that calculated by the Accountant-General. This appears to be due to the inclusion by the Collector of the allowance of Rupees 5 drawn by the applicant after being appointed 5th English Accountant (pro tem.) Although he drew the full pay of that post, viz., Rupees 25, yet service in this acting appointment did not count for pension, as the man, i.e., the 3rd English Accountant (the arrangement under whose absence, the applicant and others were officiating temporarily), was deputed for service elsewhere temporarily, under Section 18, and was counting service for the period in his own appointment, vide Section 7-A of the above Code. The calculation of the Accountant-General is correct; and the pension has been granted accordingly.

1. The Government management of Pagodas in this District ceased on the 21st March 1843 but it appears that the appointment of Perashanum Gumatash in the Collector's Office continued up to 1857 and was maintained from the amount of deposit under the head of "Perashanum Kattalai" which was at last placed to the credit of the Local Fund of this District as per G.O. No 1136 dated 10th July 1860 (Communicated to the Accountant General).

2. The post of Asst Gumatash in which the applicant is shown to have acted from 22nd June 1846 was a full vacancy.

3. Consequently on the appointment of the 3rd English Accountant on Rs 35 in this Collectorate to the post of Head Clerk on 40 Rs in the temporary Dy Collector's Office entertained an account of settling the claims on lands taken up for the South Indian Railway the applicant was appointed 5th English Asst (Probation) in the Collector's Office.

The 3<sup>d</sup> English Accountant was deputed under Section 18 of the Civil Pension Code to the post of ~~officer~~ in the Temporary Dy Collector's Office and consequently he has not forfeited during the time under deputation his claim to pension in respect of his own appointment viz 3<sup>d</sup> English. In which arrangement the applicant was appointed 5th Eng Asst (Protem). But considering the fact that the applicant drew full pay of the post of 5th Eng Asst as if he had been the permanent incumbent thereof and that the extra allowance of Rs 5 over the salary of his permanent appointment was not termed "An allowance" the salary drawn by the applicant in the capacity of 5th Eng Asst (Protem) was included in the average salary and a pension of Rs 11.3.4 was recommended. If this is inadmissible it is now recommended that a Superannuation Pension of Rs 10 per mensem be granted.

Accountant Collector's Office South Arcot.
I In the detailed lists of Establishments from 1845 to 1850 the date of 1st employment of the applicant in the Government Service was erroneously shown as 8th June 1844 instead of 8th December 1843.

II In the Pay abstracts for June and July 1873 the applicant's pay was shown in the column of deductions pending the sanction of Government for his retention in the Service as he had then attained the age of 55 years and it was paid to him. Subsequently on a Supplemental Bill dated 16th August 1873.

III Detailed lists of Establishments from 1853 to 1861 and the English pay abstracts up to 1860 are not forthcoming.

Under Sections 53, 56 (c) and 57 of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition) His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sackat Venkatesh Rao late 6th English Accountant in the Collector's office South Arcot District a Superannuation pension of Rs (10) Ten per mensem to which he is entitled for his qualifying Superior Service of 29 years 6 months and 2 days, payable from the 1st April 1876.

the applicant for the last 5 years as entered in the Register submitted by the Collector of South Arcot, differs from that calculated
by the Accountant General.

This appears to be due to the inclusion by the Collector of the allowance of Rs 5 drawn by the applicant after being appointed 5th English Acctt

the full pay of that post

not counting service for pension in his appointment.
