1. The Records of the late Mint to the abolition and those of the Assay Office previous to 1860 were made over to the Government Office in 1871; the Services of the Applicants since 1860 have been verified from the Records of the Assay Office.

2. The Appointments held by Applicants were on the "Permanent Establishment."

3. The Records not being at hand, on enquiry M. Rajawooloo states that he was entertained on 10 R and after 3 or 4 years transferred to the post of 8 R.

4. He having been short-sighted & nervous consequently unable to charge the Cupellation furnace with muckers was removed from the post of 10 to 8 R.

It is understood that "Service Books," were to have been kept only for those drawing more than 10 Rs per month.
