Read the following papers :—

From the Chemical Examiner and Assay Master, dated 31st March 1876.
,, Officiating Accountant-General, dated 30th May 1876, No. 148.

ORDER THEREON, 26th June 1876, No. 389.

Application is made for the grant of a compensation pension of Rupees 15 per mensem to Tinnanore Rungasamy Chetty, late Writer, Assay Office, Madras, whose total qualifying superior service is stated to amount to twenty-five years, eight months, and one day.

2. The applicant's service from 1st August 1850 to 13th January 1866, a period of fifteen years, five months, and thirteen days, in the Permanent Contingent Establishment of the Mint clearly does not count towards pension under G.O., dated 13th October 1869, No. 347. His qualifying superior service amounts therefore to ten years, two months, and seventeen days, viz., from 14th January 1866 to 31st March 1876.

3. The Officiating Accountant-General has out of that period classed and struck out four months of the applicant's service, from 1st October 1870 to 31st January 1871, as temporary because he was employed in the Stamp Paper Department under the Orders of Government Revenue Procs., 21st Dec. 1870, No. 2097. marginally quoted. But whatever may
Do. 3rd February 1871, No. 233. have been the nature of the duties
Do. 20th March 1871, No. 497. performed by him, the applicant was a permanent servant and must be treated as such.

4. Admitting the applicant's service on the Stamp Paper Department from 1st October 1870 to 31st January 1871 in accordance with the precedent quoted in the margin, he is entitled to a compensation gratuity of Rupees (300) three hundred, equal to ten months' salary, under Sections 47 and 56 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, which is accordingly sanctioned.

Assay Office 15 Nov/70. I have great pleasure to testify in addition to all which my former predecessors have spoken of the Character & Qualification of the Treasurer J. Pungasawmy Chetty that from June 1869 I have also found him efficient and in every way qualified as an Accountant & for writing and can therefore strongly recommend him for further employment in the Govt Service. His services in the Bullion Dept were dispensed with on the 30 Sept/70 owing to the abolition and I have transferred him to the Assay Office to succeed a Clerk of the same Establishment now doing duty in the Stamp Paper Dept. Pending the sanction of Govt for an Assistant Clerk on Rs 35. Sd/- P. F. Keller Asst Assay Master Assay Office 29 May/71. This is to certify that J. Pungasawmy Chetty Asst & for writing of the Mint & Bullion Dept Officers was transferred on the 1st Oct/70 to the Stamp Paper Dept as Assistant Clerk on Rs 35 per mensem and continued there till 31 Jan/71. Subsequently appointed as Clerk in this Office from 1st Feb/71. He was selected from the late employees of the late Mint Office to perform the miscellaneous duties of the above Establishment and proved himself a very active intelligent and trustworthy public servant and afforded every satisfaction.
