Memo.

Your memo of the 10 April 1876.

The Commercial Examiner states that he is unable to verify the services of S.
Sondrum Moodily as an Assistant to the Mechanical Engineer, Government Battery, Bangalore, as the monthly pay abstracts of that Establishment from 27 December 1869 to 3 September 1870
do not ~~show~~ the names of the several servants.

2. The Battery Establishment being fluctuating, not fixed by Government, and paid from proceeds of sale of bread, the servants are not apparently entitled either to Pension or Gratuity.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {superior} grades has been duly proved for {6} years {1} months {1} months of the Civil Pension Code (The {56(a)} of the Civil Pension Code) does; and that a {compensation} gratuity not exceeding Rs. 72-0-0 equal to six, is admissible under Section 56(a) of the Civil Pension Code.

In the Code mention is made of blind artificers only being held as superior if their occupation is injurious to health vide Section 39 clause (1) but it is for Government to decide whether the conception made in the above clause can be extended to the applicant who was servant of the assay office in consideration of the nature of duties he is reported to have performed. The Chemical Examiner stated that the applicant's duties were of a dangerous nature and injurious to health. Otherwise a gratuity equal to 3 months pay will become admissible under Section 63(a) of the Civil Pension Code.

The occupation of Turnace making and rolling machinery has been held as prejudicial to health vide G. O. No. 1438 dated 13th December 1869 and the service of one Royapuram Chinnasoboy who was a better on the Establishment of the Madras Mint, and Bullion Dept has been held superior - vide G. O. No. 1571 dated 13th March 1871.

Regarding the explanation required under Section 47 Rule 1 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to the letter of the Assay Master recorded in G. O. No. 1537 of 20th March 1870 & transmitted
