Abdul Ali has been attached to my office as Naik during the whole of the time that I have had charge of the Nellor Head Assistant Magistrate's office and he has given me much satisfaction with the manner in which he has discharged his duties. I found him active, and intelligent, and he keeps the other Dalayets and Peons in good order.

I should have been glad to enrol him in the ^{New} Police Force, where I am sure he would have got on very well.

Abdul Alli has been Daffadar in my butchery since I came to this District in May 1862 up to my departure February 1864. I have always found him attentive and diligent in the discharge of his duties and he further⁹¹⁰¹ keeps the other Peons in good order. I should be glad to hear of his early promotion.

Mellor } (Signed) B. Williams,
18-2-64 }

This is to certify that Abdul Alli was attached to the Office of the Head Assistant Collector of Mellor for a period of two years, and that during that time conducted his duties with care, diligence and activity. He is able to do any business entrusted to him with due care and attention and I can confidently assert that as Daffadar of the Atmakur Taluk his abilities will not fail to ⁹¹⁰¹win him to be posted to that Taluk. As Head Clerk in the above Office, I have great pleasure in testifying to his obedience, his punctual attendance in the Office, and his efficient discharge of every work entrusted to him.
