Sir

Adverting to your letter dated the 7th February 1876 No 442, I have the honor to inform you that the flat refusal of the applicant to sign the service book prepared on his behalf in the first instance, on the ground that his service of nearly 20 years in the Jail of Tranquebar was not included with other services as not qualifying and his further application to the Collector and the Treasury for the consideration of his claim over such service and the consequent correspondence, not unfrequently, between this and the Treasury office to ascertain whether such service could count as qualifying or otherwise gave rise to the delay referred to therein.

The service of the applicant as peon in the Tranquebar Jail was considered to be of a temporary nature as the strength of the peons establishment was always Subject to reduction or increase according to the requirements in consideration of the number of prisoners in the Jail. The appointment of the applicant appears, by his own statement, to have been abolished owing to a reduction in the number of convicts in the Jail.
