do hereby certify that I have carefully examined Appiah Naidoo

son of Iyaloo Naidoo
a Clerk in the Insolvent Office
High Court

His age is, by his own statement, 58 years, and by appearance about 58 years. I consider Appiah Naidoo to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further services of any kind, or in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of Infirmary. His incapacity does not appear to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

VIDE your Application for Pension on behalf of B. Appiah Naidoo

THE undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points.

1. Whether there was any Establishment for the Insolvent Debtors Court prior to 27 June 1860. If so why the same was not included in the Annual Returns of 1st May of each year upto 1860.
2. Whether the Establishment upto 1863 was maintained from the allowance of Rs 218-4-0 per mensem granted to the Chief Clerk. It is observed that in the order of 1848 alluded to in the reply memo mention is made of the Establishment of the Clerk of the Crown.
3. Whether to any of the servants of the above Court pensions or gratuities have been allowed by Government as yet.
If so please give instances.

* Insolvent
Debtors Court

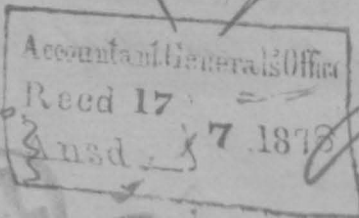

Please send copy of G. O. No. 842 of 30th May 1863 referred to in your reply memo of the 1st Instt as the same is not traceable in the records of this office.

Apts to the Acct Genl

142. I believe that from 1848 to 1863 the Establishment for Insolvent Debtors' Court was maintained from the allowance of Rs 218-4-0 per mensem granted the Chief Clerk and that may be the reason why it was included in the annual returns of 1st May of each year. I have not seen the order of 1848 alluded to in my former reply memo. The reference to it was taken from a return dated 1st May 1863 at which time the offices of Clerk of the Crown and Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Debtors' Court were held by the same gentleman Mr J. B. Mayne - but the present act for the relief of Insolvent Debtors came into force on the 31st July 1848 so that some provision for the Court's establishment was probably made about that time.

3. I believe that the only instance of a pension or gratuity having as yet been allowed by Government to any of the servants of the Insolvent Debtors' Court is that of G. Soolroy also Bramming the manager of the Official Assignee's Office who was granted a pension in 1859.

I send copy of G. O. No 842 dated 30th May 1863 as requested and will be obliged by its being returned when done with.
