Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,

Pension.

Read letter from the Collector and Agent to the Governor of Fort St. George in Ganjam, dated 19th June 1876.

Read also report from the Accountant-General, dated 28th July 1876, No. 264.

ORDER THEREON, 18th August 1876, No. 509.

Application is made for an invalid pension of Rupees 21-14-4 per mensem on behalf of Parsamarti Chalamaiya, late Criminal Javabnevis, Ganjam Agent's Court, whose superior service amounts to sixteen years, nine months and twenty-three days.

2. The pension allowable in this case, under Section 56 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, amounts to Rupees (21-13-11,) twenty-one, Annas thirteen and Pies eleven, and there appears no reason for reducing it; Mr. Master reporting that the man has borne the character of a hard-worker, and that his late shortcomings were due to bad health.

3. It is observed that the amount of the average salary of the applicant for the last five years as entered in the Register submitted by the Collector and Agent in Ganjam differs from that calculated by the Accountant-General. This appears to be due to the inclusion of the salary of Rupees 30 pro tem in the calculation of average instead of Rupees 25 which is the permanent pay of the applicant. The calculation of the latter officer on the permanent salary of Rupees 25 to which he was degraded is correct, and the pension has been granted accordingly.

Certified that, I Henry John Beach, Surgeon Major, and Acting Zillah Surgeon Berhampore, have carefully examined Pasumarti Chalamayya Pantulu, son of Pasumarti Venkannah Sastry, a criminal Javabnivis in the Agent's Court Ganjam; His age by his own statement 42 years, and by appearance about 42 years; I consider Pasumarti Chalamayya Pantulu, to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of a chronic affection of the right arm, and general debility—

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits

He has been under Medical treatment from October 1875—

Proceedings of the Ac. District Magistrate of Ganjam dated 12th May 1876.

In Proceedings dated 19th November 1875 the Ac. District Magistrate recorded his reasons for again reducing P. Chalamaiya Pantulu on representations made by the Senior Assistant Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, as he had shown himself utterly unfit to occupy the responsible post of Sub Magistrate.-

2 Subsequently the Senior Assistant in his letter dated 2d February 1876 brought to notice that Chalamaiya while Sub-Magistrate of Berhampore had omitted to write judgment in 21 Criminal Cases disposed of by him, and had only partially done so in two others.-

3. He was called upon for an explanation, which he gave, and which was extremely unsatisfactory.-

VIDE your application for Pension on behalf of P. Chellamaya Puntulu.

THE undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points.

1. Whether the post of 4th English Writer in which appt: the Applicant is shewn to have acted from 13 March 1858 to 30th June 1859 was a full vacancy. If so.
   (a) What became of the permanent incumbent of the appointment.
   (b). Whether the full pay of the post was given to the applicant.
   (c) Why was the applicant not confirmed in it. Was it due to an oversight or to any other cause.
2. Where was the permanent incumbent of the appointment of Criminal Javabnivis to which the Applt. was appointed "Sub pro tem"; and whether the permanent incumbent has vacated his claim ~~for~~ to pension in respect to his own appt: for the time (i.e. from 23 April to 18 May /76.) Vide Section 7. A. of the C. Code.
3. Why was it stated in the memos which accompanied the pay bills of the Agency Estabt. that no servant obtained leave during April & May /76. While from the register of application the Applicant ~~appears~~ as a servant of the Agency Estabt. appears to have been granted granted sick leave of absence for 8 days in April & 18 days in May last.

Please state whether the leave was with or without allowance to enable this Office to calculate his average pay during the last five years of service —

Reply.

1 - The post of the 4th English Writer in which the applicant was acting, was not a full vacancy.

(a) - One, Bhavany Sankaraiya Pantulu, the then Ver: Record keeper on Rs 35-"-" was suspended (period of suspension not specified) on the 10th March 1858 and in the arrangement which followed, P. Chalamaiya Pantulu was put to act as 4th Eng: Writer on full pay. Bhavany Sanka-raiya Pantulu was again re-instated in the service on the 1st April 1859 as Sea Customs Gumasta of Ganjam (Pay Rs 20-"-").

(b) The full pay of the post was given to the applicant.

(c) No particular cause can be found for his not having been confirmed in that post.

2 - The permanent incumbent of the appointment of Cri: Jawabnivis was appointed to be a Sub-protem Clerk on Rs 40 in the Temporary Establishment of the Assistant Collector - He has not vacated his claim to pension in respect to his own appointment —

(3) As the application for leave of P. Chalamaiya Pantulu has not been disposed of until the 16th of June 1876; his pay was shewn under "withheld" in the paybills for April and May 1876 and no leave statement was consequently submitted - A memo however granting sick leave from 23d April to 18th May 1876 retrospectively, was subsequently published in the District Gazette. The Leave was on half pay.

2. The pension allowable in this case, under Section 56(b) of the Civil Pension Code amounts to Rs. 21-13-11 twenty-one annas thirteen and pies eleven, and there appears no reason for reducing it; Mr. Master reporting that the man has borne the character of a hardworker, and thinks that his late short-comings were due to bad health.

It is observed that the amount of the average salary of the applicant for the last five years as entered in the Register submitted by the Collector and Agent in Ganjam differs from that calculated by the Accountant General. This appears to be due to the inclusion of the salary of Rs. 30 pro tem pro tem in the calculation of average instead of Rs. 25 which is the permanent pay of the applicant. The calculation of the latter Officer on the permanent salary of Rs. 25 to which he was degraded is correct, and the pension has been granted accordingly.
