Statement made by Nepalli Latchminarayana. Sheristadar of the District and Sessions Court. before J. Brandt Esqre acting District Judge. Godavery District.

I solemnly declare I will state the truth as far as I know it on the following facts.

I know that S. Rangiah Naidu the Subordinate Judge of Rajahmundry was Criminal Record Keeper and Nazir in the Sessions Court from 1845 up to 1855 as when he was appointed Munsiff of Nursapur.

I was serving in the District & Sessions Court all that time.

Statement made by Manchella Janiki Ramayya Previous Head Clerk late on the establishment of the late Principal Sadr Amin's Court before me this day.

I solemnly state that I will speak the truth & say what I know on the matter –

I was employed in the late Zillah Court from the year 1832 – and from that time up to 1872 I was in employment in that Court of the Subordinate Court and the Principal Sadr Amin's Court.

During that time I was acquainted with S. Rangiah Naidu the present Subordinate Judge. When the Subordinate Court was established in 1843 he was appointed to that Court – and in December of the same year he again got an appointment in the establishment of the Civil Court in the latter Court and he remained in
