G.O. No.	618	Press Mis.
Dated	11-10-1876

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Case No. 240.

O.S. 46 of 1873 was taken up on the 15th August the day fixed for the hearing in the day book. Namachari Cuzas the 6th Junnatale who then attended the Court stated that the 25th August was mentioned as the day for hearing in the Summons issued to the 2nd dependant. The B diary was then sent for and the dates inspected. Though the 25th was therein mentioned as the day for hearing, the figure 2 appeared to have been corrected. As the A diary of the date, on which the day for hearing of this suit was fixed, was not then in the Court, I ordered the notice posted to the door of the Court house to be looked into. It was not then to be found.

The Vakeel for the 4th defendant then present stated that as far as he had learned the date for hearing was fixed for the 15th; that he remembers to have seen the 15th mentioned as the hearing date in the notice stuck to the door of the Court house and that he was then prepared to conduct the suit.

I adjourned the suit that day and ordered the Stead Summatah to search for the above notice. The Stead Summatah two or three days after that brought the notice to me. The 15th August was therein mentioned for hearing. Upon this I took down a deposition from Punchabacasa Goyan whose duty

3 was to prepare Summons, &c. He states therein that according to the orders to prepare Summons to the 2nd defendant passed on a petition put in by Ponnusami Nelli, Plaintiffs Vakeel, Strinivasa Goyyar a pleader of the Court wrote out the Summons at his request, that the date given in it was dictated by the Plaintiffs Vakeel, that he did not then see if that date was or was not correct, that, on delivering the summons to the Stead Summatah after it had been signed and sealed, he looked into the day-book to see if the date were correct, that finding the day to be fixed in it to be the 15th he searched for the notice put up at the door of the Court house and did not find it, and that he did not immediately refer to the B diary.

✓ Immediately a deposition was taken from Ponnusami Pillai, the Plaintiff's Vakeel. He states there that he (Ponnusami Pillai) was present on the 12th August when the summons was prepared to be issued to the 2nd defendant in accordance with the orders passed on his petition in No. 46; that it was written by Vakeel Srinivasa Ayyar at the instance of Panchabacasa Ayyar or of the 2 3rd Ponnusami Kannaiah Ayyar; that the 2nd Ponnusami not being able to find out the date of hearing by an examination of the records he (Ponnusami Pillai) said that the date may be the 15th or 25th and that he had no opportunity of looking into the B diary of this Court.

3 I then took down a deposition from Vakeel Srinivasa Ayyar.
He states that Vakeel Ponnusami Pillai and Panchabacasa Ayyar the 2nd Ponnusami gave him two printed forms saying that the summons must be issued soon in the number at the same time asking him to fill it up, that he remembers

Ponnusami Pillai to have dictated the summons, and that the 2nd Jumutah did not dictate he having been engaged in some other work.

In the deposition taken from the 6th Jumutah, Ramasami Ayyar, who was in charge of the B diary, he states that he copied the proceedings of the 19th June from the A diary in the B diary, that he does not remember whether then he wrote the figures 25 or not, that of these two figures, figure 2 has been written upon, that he did not again write upon it, and that notwithstanding that the B diary was in his possession, such of 7 the Jumutahs as wished to look into it, took it from him. I herewith forward the above four depositions and that of the Vakeel of the 4th defendant in that suit.

5 I am of opinion that Vakeel Ponnusami Pillai has dictated the date 25 to be mentioned in the notice to 2nd defendant in O.S. 46 with the full knowledge that the date of hearing was to be the 15th.
For it had been made known to Vakeel S. Krishnasami Ayyar for Ponnusami Pillai, Ramtippo Vakeel, on the 19th June last, that the summons to the 2nd defendant in the suit was returned unserved.
And the billa for the 2nd defendant was not paid and the summons taken till within 2 or 3 days before the 15th which had been fixed for hearing.

And when on the 13th he paid the batta, he ought to have known again very well that there was not sufficient time to serve the summons upon the defendant and that therefore the suit of the plaintiff would be dismissed. I am therefore of opinion that it was of the greatest importance to him not to have the suit thus dismissed and that therefore he had a false date inserted in the summons as stated above. If this conclusion were right, it is necessary to discover whether the above Valuel corrected the date given in the B. diary or whether any other did it. There is reason to suppose that either the 2nd Summatal Punchabacasa Aggar or the plaintiffs Valuel above named, with his consent must have altered the date after the summons had been issued to the 2nd defendant. It is this.

6 It is the duty of the 2nd Summatal to prepare summons. There is room to think that he may have corrected the date in the B. diary to escape the blame that the summons had been issued with a false date. There may have been other reasons. The statement in the above Summatal deposition that he searched for the notice put up at the door of the Court house to ascertain the hearing date, I think improbable as he might have sent for the B. diary from where he was and cleared the doubt as soon as he doubted the correctness of the date.

I therefore think that the above 2nd Jammistah is not faultless. In case the Court should fall in with my opinion, I think the Court would agree with me in thinking that it will not be too severe to suspend for 8 months Vakeel Ponnusami Pillai who was the cause of this daring correction in a book kept in the Court and the 2nd Jammistah for 4 months who has been concerned in the affair, or to transfer them to another Court.

I pray that it may be sanctioned to punish these two as stated above. I hereby inform that I have suspended the 2nd Jammistah pending the orders of the Court.
If it should be determined to suspend the 2nd Jammistah, I pray for the sanction of the gradual promotion of the Jammistahs 3 to 8 and the appointment to the 8th Jammistah place of Copyist Laminada Ayyan who has been acting Jammistah in this Court on several occasions. Somasundaram Pillai who had been the Head Jammistah of the Mayavaram Municipality Court and transferred to this Court as 7th Jammistah, being ignorant in the work has not been promoted. Venkataramayyan the 8th Jammistah and just promoted to the 7th Jammistah applying for leave on private affairs for one month from the 1st instant, I appoint in his stead Laminatha Ayyan acting 8th Jammistah, and Ramasivoyan Pillai who has been acting Jammistah in this Court to the post of 8th Jammistah.

And I request this arrangement may be sanctioned.

I have given strict orders that neither Vakeels nor parties should hold any communication with any of the summatat except the head summatat.

AUDIT DEPARTMENT.

Fort Saint George,
Accountant General's Office, 13 March 1876.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

To THE District Judge, Tranquebar

VIDE your Application for Gratuity on behalf of Panchabigaset 2nd summatat of Dist. Municip. Cant. Private

THE undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points -

1. Whether the Pay bills or Acquittance rolls of the Dist. Municip. Cant. Trivalur are forthcoming - if so whether the Applicant's services therein from 1st Sept 72 to 31 Aug 75 have been verified - if not why?

2. What is the correct period for which the Applicant was suspended - whether

(a) From 1st Sept 74 to 31 Dec 75 as per entry in the register of application, or

(b) From 1st Sept. to 31 Dec 74 as per entry in the Service Book, or

(c) From 3rd Sept 73 as per arji No 240 of 3rd Sept 73 which accompanied the Register of application

3. If he was suspended for 4 months (as per entry in the column "Period not reckoned as service") from 3rd Sept 73 (vide entry in the pay bill for Sept.) why did not the applicant resign his app't on the 3rd Jan 74 the date on which his suspension period expired - From the Pay bill for Jan 74 he appears to have joined his post

Recd. Mr. Webb 4/9/76

post on the 7th January only.

4. What is the cause of the delay in the submission of this application.

5. Whether the applicant had no leaves of any kind (excepting casual) during the term of his superior service - viz from 1 Sept 1862.

The Service book is herewith returned for translation of the ^{Sagunt} entries into English in the first page and for signature of the applicant in the 7th column of the 4th page.

Account of the

I. The pay bills of the District Munsif Court of Trivalore from 1 September 1862 to 31 August 1874 with the execution of the Bill for April 1863 are forthcoming and the acquittance Rolls of the said court from 1 September 1874 to 31 August 1875 are also forthcoming. The acquittance Roll for April 1863 is not also forthcoming but a reference has been made to the Diary from all of which the applicant's services from 1 September 1862 to 31 August 1875 have been verified.

II. The correct period for which the Applicant was suspended is from 3 September 1873 as per Pay bills and acquittance Rolls.

III. The Applicant's period of suspension expired on the evening of the 2 January 1874 and he ought to have been allowed to resume his appointment on the 3rd idem but for some reason not known the District Munsif has thought fit to keep him from his appointment till the 7th January. I have sent for and spoken to the Applicant he says that he waited upon the Munsif on the 3rd January 1874 but that the Munsif did not allow him to join until the 7th. The Applicant has drawn pay from the 7th January 1874 as appears from the Acquittance Roll of the Munsif's Court.

IV. As for the delay in submitting the Application for Pension the Gumastah was relieved from his duty on the 1st September last. The District Munsif wrote to the North Tanjore District Court on the 4th of the said month recommending the Gumastah for pension. The necessary printed form was then sent down to the Munsif who filled it up and forwarded it to the District Court on the 23rd October last. The statement was returned for correction to the Munsif who corrected and finally retransmitted it to the District Court on the 16th November following. The subsequent delay in the preparation and submission of the application has to be explained by the District Court of North Tanjore which has been abolished and the necessary correspondence &c papers bearing on the point have already been forwarded to Tanjore. It further appears that the call for this information was received shortly after 13th March 1876 that the District Court immediately called upon the Munsif to explain that the adjournments of the Courts intervened including the abolition of the North Tanjore District Court and that the Munsif sent in his explanation on the 11th May 1876.

V. The Applicant had no leave of any kind excepting casual during the time of his superior service.

VI. The service book is retransmitted with the translation made and the 7th column of the 4th Page signed by the Applicant.

The pay bills are not for the coming year.

2. The applicant was suspended for four months from 3rd September 1873 at per argee Rs. 240 which accompanied the register of application. The entries in the service book and the register of application regarding the date of his suspension are clerical errors.

3. He does not seem to have been allowed by the late Munsiff to resume his appointment till the 7th January 1874 for reasons not recorded.

4. It seems that the applicant had no leave other than Casual during the tenure of his super service.
