ORDER THEREON, 14th October 1876, No. 624.

The applicant resigned the public service on the 28th March 1855, and was succeeded by his son. At the time of his retirement he was, according to his statement, about fifty-seven years of age. His reason for retiring was that he was unable to do his work "owing to old age and dizziness arising from bile;" neither he nor his witness make any mention of his son having succeeded him.

2. At the time of his retirement* gratuities to peons were only granted in very special cases. Such servants were generally provided for by appointing their sons or near relatives to their vacant situations.† The petitioner received this benefit. His application will, therefore, be rejected.
