The missing bills have all been found and show the applicant's name.

As regards the delay, the man was discharged on 1st July 1874. His papers were submitted by the Guntur Tahsildar on 17th December following: and with them, very incomplete information. The man never once appeared to help in the verification of his service. After several references to the Taluqs the Sub Collector was in May 1876 requested to send for the man and to take his affidavit. But that officer reported in June that he, the applicant, had died in the previous month. His service book was received on 19th July 1876 completed and signed by the Sub Collector: and his History of service forwarded to the Account office for verification on 21st August 1876.
