Certified that I, Henry John Beach, have carefully examined Manda Chinnasawmy son of Manda Ramesan for, a Head-Writer in the District & Session court Berhampore; His age by his own statement 52 years and by appearance about 60 years. I consider Manda Chinnasawmy to be completely, and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age, and Debility. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, 21st March 1870.

Read the following papers.

Letter from the Civil Judge of Berhampore dated 25th January 1870, submitting a report concerning the reduction and suspension of Mr. Chinna samy, late Head Writer in the Civil & Sessions Court of Berhampore in reply to a letter from the Acting Registrar of the High Court dated 18th October 1869.

4. In disposing of the appeal of the late Head Writer M. Chinna samy against the order of the Civil Judge reducing him to the post of Second Writer and then suspending him, the High Court have felt some difficulty. In consequence of the reinstatement of the Second Writer by the order of this Court conveyed in the Proceedings of 20th January 1870 reduction has practically become dismissal. There appear to have been insubordination and disobedience to the orders orders of the Judge on the part of Mr. Chinmasamy and such conduct deserves punishment. Further there are hasty and unfounded imputations on the Civil Judge's motives. But as the Judge himself did not consider it necessary to remove Mr. Chinmasamy from the Court, the High Court have, in consideration of Mr. Chinmasamy's long service and favorable testimonials, arrived at the conclusion that dismissal is too severe a punishment.

Mr. Chinmasamy must however be cautioned that any further discourtesy or inattention to the requirements of the Judge will be regarded by the High Court as good ground for dismissal, and that if on this occasion the High Court are disposed to overlook his faults their leniency must not be misconstrued. Mr. Chinmasamy will be reinstated in the post of Head Writer on the receipt of these proceedings but will only draw the pay of Second Writer during

52 during his tenure of that office-and will draw no pay during his absence from duty.

I now see that the order that the writers should make copies referred directly to two English judgments alone: & that though the Record Keeper - from being present when it was passed - knew that it referred to Telugu judgments also, yet so far as the record is concerned that is only matter of inference: so that if the Head Writer after seeing both orders refused to make Telugu copies without an express order, he was justified.

Consequently, it is only for lying & subornation of lies that he is to be punished & he is suspended for a fortnight only.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 1260 dated 19th June 1876 forwarding for verification the pension application by Manda Chinnaswamy late Head Writer of your Court, I have the honor to state that the individual was employed in this office from 17th March 1863 to 31st December 1863 and not from 10th March 1863 as put down in the application. The verification has been made

No. 275, I most respectfully beg to inform your Honor that the date 10th March 1863 corresponds with the date of the certificate granted me by the then Princ^l Ass^t Collector which was duly entered in the Service Register Book, but at this distance of time I am unable to explain how 17th March 1863 was entered in the Principal Ass^t Collector's records; but however I came on six months' leave from Vizagapatam and took up the appointment in the Principal Ass^t Collector's office at Chicacole, hence my lien as 3rd Writer in the Vizag^m Principal Sadr Amiri Court did not cease, consequently there is no break in my service - If your Honor deem it desirable, I humbly pray that your Honor may be graciously pleased

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points:-

1. Why was the applicant shown in the Register of application to have been permanent 2nd writer from 11 May 1856 while from the Annual Returns of 1 May 1857 and 1858 he appears to have been only an acting Asst. Writer - 2. If as shown in the Returns he was only acting as Asst. writer, whether the same was a permanent vacancy whether he was confirmed in it - and if not why -
3. Why was the applicant shown as Acting 2nd writer upto 4 May 1859 which in the Annual Return of 1 May 1859 he was shown as permanent incumbent of it - 4. If he was first Acting in that App't then subsequently confirmed in it what was was the cause of degradation to an applt: the pay of which was 24 1/2 Rupees - -

These sent Copies of orders under which the Applicant was Adverting to your Official Memo^x dated 22nd September last requesting information in connection with Manda China Suamy's Pension Application I have the honor to enclose copy of two arijs submitted by him under date 23rd & 28th ultimo touching all the points of your memo except the last: the explanations he gives in connection with points 1, 2, 3 & 4 appear sufficient and it would seem his appointment as 3rd Writer in Vizagapatam Sub Court was not by way of degradation at all.

With further reference to para 4 of your memo I beg to enclose copy of this Court's order of suspension: Order of degradation is not forthcoming and and it does not appear that it was ever brought on office record: applicant's statement however that he drew no pay as 2nd Writer is incorrect as the Pay Abstract for November 1869 shows that he drew pay in that post for 29th & 30th of that month. As to when the orders of degradation and suspension were brought into force, presumably they were so on the 29th November and 1st December 1869 respectively.

The applicant's service book is retransmitted herewith amended as regards his tenure of 2nd Writer's post in this Court and signed by me as requested.

was decidedly a permanent vacancy.

On 20th April 1858 I was promoted as Ag 2^d Writer which post I held in the Principal Sudder Ameer's Court up to 4th May 1859.

On the transfer of the Subordinate Court from Rajahmundry to Vizagapatnam agreeably to G. O. dated 27th April 1859 published at page 857 of the Fort Saint George Gazette I was on the 5th May 1859 appointed 3rd Writer in the said Court, which I held up to 9th August 1860.

On the 10th August I was promoted as Ag 2^d Writer in the above said Court and held that post until 9th February 1861.

On the 10th February 1861, I was reverted to my permanent appointment as 3^d Writer, which post I held up to 9th July 1861.

On 10th July 1861 I was again promoted as Ag 2^d Writer, which post I held up to 31st March 1862.

On 1st April 1862 I was reverted to my permanent post as 3rd Writer which I held up to 2^d July 1862.

On 3rd July 1862 I was lastly promoted as Ag 2^d Writer which post I held up to 30th September 1862.

On 1st October 1862 I was reverted to my permanent post as 3rd Writer which I held up to 9th March 1863.

On 10th March 1863 I was promoted as permanent English Clerk in the Principal Assistant Collector's Office of anyam District.

The subsequent promotions will be apparent from my Service Register

Most Respected Sir,

In Continuation of my explanation dated 23^d instant, I beg most respectfully to add that the Order of my suspension dated 30th November 1869 was recorded at page 93 of a Book called "48 Synopsis."

With regard to my degradation to the post of 2^d Writer, neither was there an Order recorded nor ever carried into effect. In fact I never assumed charge of 2nd Writer nor drew a fraction of Salary as such.

After I was suspended from my post as Head Writer for for the reasons assigned in the above said Order, I was on my appeal reinstated by the Honorable High Court.

These circumstances will be manifestly clear on a reference being made to the Court's attendance Roll for October and November 1869.

Proceedings of the Civil and Session Court of Perhamptore. 30th November 1869

On 2nd November 1869, the late Mr Head Writer, M. Ch., was called upon to report upon serious delays in his office. For one he gave some kind of reasonable excuse: but for the fact that not one Judgment or Decree had been fairly during the four months that I had had charge of the Court he had nothing better to say than that "early in August" I told him to bring up to date the Indexes of papers received and sent before he began the fairing of the Judgments &c. He was then called upon to explain why the Indexes had not been brought up to date: and he said only that he had brought up two of them. He had had written Orders to bring to me, every Saturday, not only those two, but also two others, so framed as to bring to notice all arrears in the business of his office. His attention has often been called to this order: but he has deliberately deliberately disobeyed it: and the arrears Indexes he has not even begun, I believe.

Before he gave his first explanation, he had been called upon for it, in writing, three.
For the second he was called upon twice in vain: and was then made to come and sit in the Court, and write it.

It has just been brought to my notice, by the new Agt. P. Writer, that the translations of the records in two referred murder cases have been in the Writers' office ever since the middle of October: and that a translation which was long ago called for by the High Court has not been sent.

He, like every other head of a department had orders at the beginning of August to submit to me daily, a diary of the proceedings of his department for the preceding day. Every other head has obeyed the order: but he has never submitted a diary for a single day.
Many

25 Many other instances of misconduct on his part have been recorded: and on the 26th Instant. I wrote "If the Agt. P. Writer has any further excuse to make for the delays in his office, he had better make it at once".
To this he has made no reply: and I decline to call upon him any more.

Ever since I took charge of this Court he has disobeyed every order which he dared to disobey. His conduct has been uniformly disgraceful: and he is suspended for three months, from the date on which he finishes giving over charge of his office. For any time unnecessarily spent in the process, no pay will be passed to him.

No entry need be made in this Column except when there is any thing either good or bad to be recorded. Suspensions should be noted here when the order of suspension is passed. Mr. C. J. Longly, P. Sub Judge of Chicacole at Vizagapatnam has sent an Official letter to the Civil Judge of Chicacole on the 10th April 1861. P. Sub Judge recommending the individual for the office of the P. English Writer then vacant in the Civil and Sessions Court of Chicacole and recorded his opinion as follows:- "I have no hesitation in forwarding Chinnaswamy's application as I consider him well qualified for the post for which he applies" I have much pleasure in recording my entire satisfaction at the manner in which Mandah Chinnaswamy the 3rd English Writer attached to the Court has performed his duties during the 6 months I have had charge of the Court. 27th May 1861. Signed C. J. Longly, P. Sub Judge. This is to Certify that during the period of upwards of six months that I presided over the Subordinate Court of Chicacole at Vizagapatnam as P. Sub Judge I found Mandah Chinnaswamy, P. English Writer of the said Court to be diligent and hard working man and he has discharged almost all the duties of the P. Writer to my perfect satisfaction. He has good knowledge of accounts and also of the routine of the Judicial business in general. He is clever writer both in English and Telugu and in short his qualifications have induced me to think of promoting him to the P. English Writer of the office in the English Department of the Conditional leave granted to D. Rama Chinnaswamy. To guide the P. English Writer should hire his own time. Signed H. Jeyaganesan, P.
