Annaswami Patnam Head Shroff of the Engraving, having acted me for a testimony of what I thought of him & his services during the years 1866 to 1869, when I was Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury, I have much pleasure in saying that I always considered him an able, hardworking, very careful & a very honest & trustworthy servant. He often acted for the Engraver and every time gave the utmost satisfaction. I hope he will still continue to render good service & when he retires, he may be succeeded by his son.
