I am directed to acquaint you that the Secretary of State has been strongly impressed by representations which have been made to him, that the Public Interests suffer materially from the inconvenient distance at which the Office of Assistant Surveyor General is established from the Seat of Government, and that the Duties of that Office are frequently performed in a manner highly prejudicial to the Public Service.

2. His Excellency has therefore been pleased to direct that the Office of Assistant Surveyor General be removed to Sydney, and that the Duties of that Office be performed by the Surveyor General, or by such Officer as he may appoint for the purpose.

3. I am directed to request that you will cause the necessary arrangements to be made for the removal of the Office accordingly.
