Police.

No. 92. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 10th January 1876, No. 107:—

With reference to paragraphs 3 and 4 of G.O., No. 2025, dated 16th September 1875, I have the honor to state that Head Constable G. Narsinga Row, of the Bellary District, has resigned the service.

2. I enclose a letter from the Civil Surgeon of Calicut regarding fourth-class Inspector Mr. R. W. Frank. Although Mr. Frank is mentally and physically sound at present, yet he has suffered from a violent fit of insanity, in the course of which he acted in a manner calculated to create great mischief. This might occur again, and I consider that his retention in the Police Force would be dangerous. I, therefore, recommend his removal. I enclose a statement of Mr. Frank's service. He is entitled to a gratuity of Rupees 450, and I request the orders of Government regarding him.

3. Then there is the case of Streenavasa Chary alluded to in paragraph 2 of my letter embodied in the Proceedings of Government above quoted. A statement of this man's service is annexed. He was formerly a Clerk in the Chief Office at the head of the Statistical Department, where he showed unusual ability, and was thence sent as Headquarter Inspector of Police to Cuddapah. He proceeded on privilege leave on the 13th August 1874, and rejoined on the 14th November 1874. During this period I think he was undoubtedly insane. He rushed about the country to Bangalore, the ...s, Trevandrum, Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Madura, and Tinnevely (some of which places he visited more than once), calling on high Government officials, &c. He put himself out to be other than he was, and writing to Sessions Judges to recall his letter to him, &c. On his return I saw him, and I have since seen him several times. His extreme disorder of dress, his wildness of eye and manner, and his incoherence of language clearly betokened insanity to my judgment, but no medical officer who has treated him has certified to this effect. He reported sick, and continued under treatment from 14th November 1874 till 4th January 1875. He obtained a medical certificate on the 4th January 1875, and his leave was extended for three months on the 4th May 1875. He obtained a further extension of two months from the 4th August 1875, and was suspended from the 4th October, the Committee of Medical Officers which assembled on the 11th October having declined to certify to his insanity and recommending further treatment. I forward a memorandum from Captain Blair, Acting Superintendent of Police, Cuddapah, showing that Streenavasa Chary gravely misconducted himself when Headquarter Inspector of Police in Cuddapah about some lottery tickets and in other matters. Streenavasa Chary admitted to me that he had sold lottery tickets to members of the Police force for more than they were worth. I attribute his misconduct in this and other matters entirely to a disordered mind, for he had always previously been a respectable, well-conducted man though conceited about his ability and attainments. He wrote home and offered himself to Mr. Fawcett as a witness before the Committee on Indian Finance, and I believe received a favorable reply. I do not think that he can now be trusted in any capacity, and recommend that he should be discharged with gratuity* for the service he has done.

* Rupees 600.
