Sir

As the time has now arrived when it is necessary for me to leave England to take up my appointment at Gopaul-pore, I regret to say I do not feel myself (never having recovered from the effects of the Dengue fever contracted in India) equal to the conscientious performance of the active duties which in case of bad weather or disaster to shipping on the coast may be required of me I am therefore reluctantly obliged to place my resignation of the appointment in your hands. Hoping my doing so the small amount of retiring allowance due may be granted me.

I may add I am partly induced induced to take this step as I understand there is no possibility of my being able to have my family living with me at Gopaulpore. and being now nearly 60 years of age.
