Sir,

In reply to your Memo No 8051 of 20th Instant I have the honor to state that I have written to the Master Attendant of Calicut for further information regarding the date on which Coonhy Wroideen was transferred from this port to Calicut as Tindal.

2. The Anchor Boat Serang Sheahmoo succeeded Coonhy Wroideen as Tindal. This promotion now appears not to be verified by the Accountant General, and therefore I have referred to Calicut as the information obtained here is doubtful.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No 612 of 24th Instant, I have the honor to state that Coorby Moideen's name was allowed to appear in the Pay Abstracts up to December 1876, on the understanding that if he did not like Calicut, he should be permitted to return to this port.

2. There is nothing on record to show it, but it is known that prior to his taking up his post at Calicut, Coorby Moideen had leave from the late Captain Maideen to go to his country and make arrangements for taking his family with him, and he eventually joined the Establishment on the 28th October - the Indal Sheahman having drawn the full pay at Cochin from 1st September.

3. Neither of the applicants have had any
