To
The Superintendent of Police
Vizagapatam

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose depositions taken from two contemporary employés of S. Simhadrisah Constable No 111 as required in the Accountant General's letter dated 16th November 1876

2. Although P. Appadoo Constable No 392 states that he had served in the old Police for 13 years per from his own affidavit as well as the deposition of his witnesses he is correct that he had served 30 years, and deducting the length of his service in the new Police viz, 15 years from the total period he would remain 15 years to be accounted for. His service in the old Police has therefore been counted as 15 years. In other respects 1876 he is entitled to Collector and Power of Attorney to Collector.

I have the honor

I Cornelius Jansz Modelliar appeared before the Collector of the Negombo District on the 1st July 1870 & declared as follows:

I have served as a Peon of Government Police Station Negombo & Colombo, during the time of Assistant Collector Mr Stange about 38 years ago. I was first placed at Office proper for 13 years, & afterwards in 1861 when the Police Corps was organized I was transferred from the Post of Police Peon to that of Corporal Police for 1 Corps for two years, and was then promoted to the 1 Class of Constable of Robbery, which I have been discharging up to now. I have never committed any fault during the above period of time. I am now not able and unable to perform the Government duties, the Doctor has given me a certificate that I am unfit for further service. I cite the undermentioned witnesses to prove my having served during the above period.

} of Negombo

I know the man called Bahadur Shah of Uppadur. He was appointed about 6 or 7 months ago by the Jaffna Collector
Mr. Rees. Another was Elected and I was one Assistant. I know the same Valley from which he was elected entitled on the Police Court Roll in that Valley for a long time. When he was first appointed he went to receive Rolls [illegible] Valley. I do not know as to which Case was contacted he was employed; but I am aware that he was a Constable. He held that appointment up to the 7th instant when his service was dispensed with.
He was never suspended or fined.
I do not know Bahadur Shah of Uppadur,
I am well aware of the above circumstances. He used to come to my shop frequently. He is a young fellow about 20 years, and the length of his service about 3 or 4. I know no more about him.

I heard this statement read over to me and find it correct.
