Memo of Answers.

1st Point. The duplicate copies of salary bills previous to 25th July 1860 are not found. But the applicant's services prior to the said date have been verified from the detailed lists and other records of the Court.

2nd Point. There is nothing on the records to show that the applicant had any leave other than casual during the whole period of his service.

3rd Point. Under the 3rd Class Munsifs head in the office copy of the detailed list dated 30th April 1860 as well as in the statement (annual) of Sadr Munsif's return dated 1st May 1860, the applicant is shown as acting as District Munsif for Barha Pannasahi the permanent Munsif.
