Pension.

No. 138.

FROM

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
FORT ST. GEORGE,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to the first portion of paragraph 1 of your Under Secretary's letter of the 23rd January 1877, No. 190, I am directed to forward the annexed explanation from the Accountant-General, dated 13th February 1877, No. 795, respecting entries 14, 19, and 25, made in Statement II, Invalid Pensions.

2. As regards entry No. 24, I am directed to state, that it did not escape the notice of this Government that the rules do not contemplate the grant of a maximum pension to an officer, whose character is reported to be very indifferent, when granting the pension to the individual in question, but they saw no reason to reduce his pension, Mr. C. G. Master, the Collector of the District, having reported that the individual concerned had borne the character of a hard worker, and that his late shortcomings had been due to bad health.

3. The grant of a charitable allowance of Rupees 4, from the Port Fund, to the widow of a boatman, has been separately explained in letter from the Marine Department, dated 2nd March 1877, No. 156.

4. I am also directed to forward the papers relating to entry No. 30 of Statement II, Invalid Pension, referred in paragraph 2 of your Under Secretary's letter under reply, and to state that the reasons for charging to the Special Reward Fund the extraordinary family gratuities have been separately explained in letter from the Judicial Department, dated 1st March 1877, No. 550-A.

5. The two Statements are herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FORT ST. GEORGE,
15th March 1877.

Secretary to Government.

From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 13th February 1877, No. 795.

Audit Department.

With reference to the first part of paragraph 1 of Government of India letter, dated 23rd ultimo, No. 190, communicated to me for explanation, in G.O., dated 10th instant, No. 55, Pension Department, I have the honor to state that in entry No. 14, Statement II, the additional pie in question was granted by the Government of India in their order sanctioning the pension; and that, in the other two cases referred to, it was added by this office, as the fractional part was in excess of half a pie.
