Gadavary District Court,
Pajamunary, 15th February 1871

From,

J. Brantlett Esq,
Sd District Judge of Gadavary,

To,

The Accountant General,
Fort Saint George,
Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 15th ultimo, I have the honor to state that the entries are, as requested, duly made in the Service Book of the Applicant.

N. Lakshminarayana, the late Minister of this Court. They were not made before as they could not be attested by the Applicant as required by Col. 7 of the Service Book, he having died, as before stated.

2. Replies to the questions put by you in the above letter are as follows:-

1st The Pay Abstracts from January 1860 to

J. Brantlett

to 1856 wherein Annual Returns (D form Statements) were entered are not forthcoming, as there was no alternative than to copy, in the History of Service, the entries contained in the Service Book kept by the Applicant which in all items coincides with the Service Register kept in this Court under the old rules. There is no other material for verification of the items asked for.

2^d The Applicant was permanent Clerk of the Civil Court from 27th January 1865 to 14th February 1866 & by additional District Judge of Georgetown during the same period. The latter appointment appears also in the D form Statement submitted on 18th May 1865. In the History of Service the word "acting" was

135
by clerical mistake omitted before the words "Additional District Judge".

3rd The Applicant within the last five years of his service, obtained three months leave without allowance. His pay for this period of three months, viz, Rupees 300 was not therefore calculated towards the average emoluments.

4th The details of the Applicant's services from October 1843 to 1861 are taken from the Register of Servants kept in the Court under the old rules, & from his service book. His service details also appear from the Pay Abstracts for 1844-45 (since discovered) and from the D form Statements from 1856. His handwriting also appears constantly in the Court's records during the above periods.

5th The

5th. The applicant was seriously ill when he retired from service and died within a very few days afterwards. So affidavit could not be taken from him.

He was never known as Latchman Row. His name was Latchminarayana and as such was entered in the copy of the Annual Return for May 1859 kept in the records of this Court. In the copy sent to your Office the name may have been so entered by clerical mistake.

A statement from the Muchi of this Court, another contemporary employee in support of the applicant's service, is herewith sent.
