GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

15th March 1877, No. 138.

Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From D. BARBOUR, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort William, 23rd January 1877, No. 190.

In acknowledging the receipt under your endorsements Nos. 792 and 793, both dated 19th December 1876, of the Statements of Pensions and Gratuities for the quarter ended 30th September 1876, I am directed to communicate the following remarks:—

Statement II, Entries Nos. 14, 19, and 25, Invalid Pensions.—The grant in each case is in excess of what is admissible under rule by one pie.

Entry No. 24.—The rules do not contemplate the grant of maximum pension to an officer whose character is reported to be “very indifferent.”

Statement XIV, Extraordinary Family Pension.

A Local Government is not competent to sanction an extraordinary family pension, even though the pension be paid from a Local Fund. I am to request that the papers relating to this case may be submitted to the Government of India.

2. I am at the same time to request that the Government of India may be favored with a perusal of the papers relating to Entry No. 30 of Statement II, Invalid Pensions, and also with an explanation of the grounds for charging to the Special Reward Fund the extraordinary family gratuities reported in Entries Nos. 1 and 2 of Statement XV.

3. The Statements are herewith returned for facility of reference, but they should be returned with your reply.

No. 55.

Referred to the Marine and Judicial Departments respectively with reference to the concluding portion of paragraphs 1 and 2 of the foregoing letter from the Government of India, dated 23rd January 1877, No. 190.

2. A copy of the foregoing letter will also be communicated to the Accountant-General for such explanation as he may wish to offer in respect to the first portion of paragraph 1.

10th February 1877.

(Signed) H. B. GRIGG,
Acting Under Secretary.

From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 13th February 1877, No. 795.

Audit Department.

With reference to the first part of paragraph 1 of Government of India letter, dated 23rd ultimo, No. 190, communicated to me for explanation, in G.O., dated 10th instant, No. 55, Pension Department, I have the honor to state that in entry No. 14, Statement II, the additional pie in question was granted by the Government of India in their order sanctioning the pension, and that, in the other two cases referred to, it was added by this office, as the fractional part was in excess of half a pie.

To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort St. George, 15th March 1877, No. 138.

With reference to the first portion of paragraph 1 of your Under Secretary's letter of the 23rd January 1877, No. 190, I am directed to forward the annexed explanation from the Accountant-General, dated 13th February 1877, No. 795, respecting entries 14, 19, and 25, made in Statement II, Invalid Pensions.

2. As regards entry No. 24, I am directed to state that it did not escape the notice of this Government that the rules do not contemplate the grant of a maximum pension to an officer whose character is reported to be very indifferent when granting the pension to the individual in question, but they saw no reason to reduce his pension, Mr. C. G. Master, the Collector of the District, having reported that the individual concerned had borne the character of a hard worker and that his late shortcomings had been due to bad health.

3. The grant of a charitable allowance of Rupees 4, from the Port Fund, to the widow of a boatman has been separately explained in letter from the Marine Department, dated 2nd March 1877, No. 156.

4. I am also directed to forward the papers relating to entry No. 30 of Statement II, Invalid Pension, referred in paragraph 2 of your Under Secretary's letter under reply, and to state that the reasons for charging to the Special Reward Fund the extraordinary family gratuities have been separately explained in letter from the Judicial Department, dated 1st March 1877, No. 550-A.

5. The two Statements are herewith returned.

(Signed) D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Secretary to Government.
