From the Officiating District Judge of South Malabar, dated 18*th December* 1876.
,, Officiating Accountant-General, dated 10*th February* 1877, No. 788.
To the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, dated 22*nd March* 1877, No. 156.
From T. WEIR, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated 16*th April* 1877, No. 976.

Adverting to your letter, dated 22nd March 1877, forwarding an application for pension on behalf of Parthasarathy Pillai, late first-grade District Munsif, Nedunganad, South Malabar, and requesting to be informed whether this official may not be retained in the service for a further period of nine months to complete the necessary term of service for one-half pension, I am to state that the appointment and the vacancy in the first grade of Munsifs created by Parthasarathy Pillai's retirement have long since been filled up, and that the High Court cannot now, without inflicting undue hardship on the persons who have been appointed and promoted, permit the restoration of Parthasarathy Pillai to the position which he formerly held.

2. I am to add that, when the question whether Parthasarathy Pillai should be required to retire on his attaining the age of sixty years was laid before the High Court, it was stated by the District Judge of South Malabar that this Munsif required to serve for a further period of two years to secure the one-half rate of pension.

Order thereon, 8th May 1877, No. 235.

Application is made for a special pension of Rupees 150 per mensem on behalf of Malai Parthasarathy Pillai, late District Munisif of Nedunganad, in the South Malabar District, whose superior service amounts to twenty-three years and twenty-six days.

2. On the perusal of the applicant's pension papers the Government see no special reason whatever in this case to warrant an application to Her Majesty's Government for special pension.

3. His Grace the Governor in Council resolves to grant the one-third pension, Rupees (100) one hundred per mensem, to Malai Parthasarathy Pillai, to which he is entitled under Sections 56, 59 (C), and 60 of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition), payable at Madras from the 10th December 1876.

Proceedings of the Civil Court of Tellichery.
Dated 5th March 1853.

Read Petition No. 177 of 1853 presented on the 3rd instant by Parthasarthy Pillay, stating that he served as 2nd Writer and Acting Nazir in the Court of the Principal Sadr Amin of Tinnevelly for a long time; that he possesses numerous certificates for his having conducted public business with integrity; that he intends to submit a Petition to Government to obtain a public employment and praying therefore that he may be furnished with an order of Court so that it may support his application to Government.

With reference to the abilities of the Petitioner and the excellent character which he bore prior to the instance of misconduct which led to his dismissal in 1850, the Civil Judge would have no personal objection to re-employ the Petitioner who has now suffered for his offence by the loss of his situation for three years, if a suitable opportunity should occur for engaging his services in an inferior situation. Under the orders of Government under date 18th November 1851 the Civil Judge is however unable to do so without express permission.

Late 1st Grade Dist. Munsif of Nedunganad
South Malabar.

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. The certificates obtained by this officer and my own private enquiries prove that during his 21 years' services as Munsif his conduct for integrity has been absolutely unimpeachable

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. The papers connected with his suspension are not with me and I can form no opinion

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX.

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it.

5. Any other remarks. 10 months additional service as Munsif would have entitled him to retire on 150 Rs. a month and I strongly recommend that as a matter of favor this pension be granted. It is not impolitic to mark with approval very special cases of integrity among old and tried servants and I believe that all who know Parthasarathy Pillay will uphold me in saying that his is a very special case.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 23 years ~~months~~ and 26 days; and that a superannuation {pension / ~~gratuity~~} not exceeding Rs. 100 " " per mensem equal to one third pay, is admissible under Section 60 of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

The District Judge in his remarks on the 3rd page of the application strongly recommends that the applicant be as a matter of favor granted a pension equal to half pay Viz. 150 Rupees - He will be eligible to this amount if he serves for a further period of nine months when he will complete 22 years service in the priveleged capacity of Moonsiff. From 8th September 1855 to date of removal Viz 9th December 1876 his service as Moonsiff amounts to 21 years & 3 months including leave. Vide Section 63 (c) & appendix 13 1 of the Civil Pension Code.

In the event of the recommendation of the District Judge being complied with and a pension of Rupees 150 granted without further service being required, it is respectfully requested that the Proceedings of Government may be submitted to the Government of India for confirmation -

Application is submitted in triplicate with reference to Circular No 913 of the Government of India communicated in G. O. Financial No 1234 of 5th June 1875 as the applicant is strongly recommended by the District Judge for a special pension. -

Memo for _orders_ 37

The Ag. Dist. Judge – Malabar, submits an application for pension on behalf of one M. Parthasarathy Pillay, Dist. Moonsiff of Nedunganad – The applicant is now entitled to a pension of Rs 100, or 1/3 salary – if he serves 9 months further he will be entitled to a half pension – or Rs 150 per mensem. The Ag. Judge, W. Wigram, however recommends that as a _very special_ case, he should receive a special pension of Rs 150 pm, without completing his service – on the ground of his exceptional integrity. W. Wigram _however_ has not, he states, perused the papers relating to his _suspension_; – or as it should be termed _dismissal_ in 1850 – in consequence of which he was out of employ for 3 years, – & some where on reconsideration of the order of dismissal the G W permitted his reemployment on the responsibility of the Judge, they directed that he should be employed in a subordinate capacity. However exemplary his subsequent behaviour has been, this flaw will doubtless be fatal to the success of an application to the G. India, even if the circumstances of the case required special consideration which, it is submitted, they do not. Apart from this however it is necessary that Govt. should resolve to overlook this break in service & report their proceedings, should they resolve to overlook, to the G. India, as the rule is that such restoration should be within 12 months.

He is now 60 years of age

Yes 18/3

This it is submitted may be done.

With regard however to the applicant's retirement, no reason is assigned why he has not been retained in the service - He has only 9 months to complete 22 years service, entitling him under the privileged appointment of Moonsiffs to 1/2 pension -

It is submitted a reference should be made to the High Court on this point.

Pension No 100. 41

Attention is invited to the previous Memo for Orders, which gives the facts of the case –

The High Court were referred to regarding the applicant's reinstatement for a period of 9 m. to enable him to obtain 1/2 pension. They ~~H.C.~~ say this cannot now be done, remarking that W. Ingram on reporting this case said the applicant had 2 yrs & not 9 months only to serve for the major pension.

It is submitted that nothing can now be done further than to grant Parkenrattey Pillay 1/3 pension ~~subject to the approval of the Govt~~.
