Pension.

Read the following paper:—

From Mrs. MARY TALBOT, Portugese Church Street, North Black Town, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 15th March 1877.

The Accountant-General having declined to pay to me the pension due to my late husband for February and the first day of March current without the formal sanction of Government owing to my inability to take out letters of administration, in consequence of my husband having left no sufficient property to necessitate my taking such a step, I beg most respectfully to solicit that the Accountant-General may be instructed to pay me the due, he being already placed in possession of the pension roll, the burial certificate and my acquittal for the claim.

2. I beg to add, for the information of Government, that the acquittal of my three children, the only other legal survivors to the estate of my husband, will be furnished to the Accountant-General should he require the same.

No. 799.

Referred to the Accountant-General for report.

From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 18th April 1877, No. 83.

Audit Department.

I have the honor to state that this office has on its own responsibility paid to the reported heirs of pensioners arrears of pensions not exceeding in each case ten rupees when either it was known in the office that the applicants were entitled to it or when the application for such arrears was accompanied by a certificate to that effect from some known officer. This, however, I am of opinion, is unsatisfactory, and therefore suggest that some standing rule on the subject may be prescribed after reference, if necessary, to the Advocate-General.
