Your arzees No. 524 of 1858 & No 596 of 1859 together with their enclosures submitted by you in the case of complaint made against Subbinaidu Varasingarow Samutdar of Paladugu Mootah as well the arzees addressed by the said Tarasingarow in the same case, as the petitions of complainant presented by different parties have been perused.

From the record it does not appear that the case of bribe received by the Samutdar has been proved. In last year acres 4-1/2 of the field No 215 cultivated by a ryot named Motharala Seshu were not brought to account, it was stated that through mistake the land were included in another number. This statement is considered to have been made with a view to cover the fault. Although it appears that the assessment of concealed land was subsequently brought to account, yet the Samutdar and curamis have not been punished. Moreover it appears from the record that owing to the difference between the Samutdar and the ryots of the Village they are Considering these facts and bearing in mind the recommendation made by you in your order I have transferred the Samutdar Chabbi -niviss Narasingarow to the Samutdarship of Bellankonda Mootah of 10 Rs and the Samutdar of that post named Atimalla Venkayya to the Samutdarship of 12 Rs in question. You will enter their names accordingly and take care that they regularly and carefully perform the duties of their Mootahs respectively.

The curmams viz Horrapati Hotayya and Narsayya are each fined this time 5 Rupees for the guilt having brought the land to account and for other complaints made against them by the ryots and for the purpose of their careful conduct in future.

You will collect the fine from them and credit it under the head of Extra Revenue.

Final endorsements have been given to all the petitioners of complaint in this case.

You will take action upon them regularly.

You will warn the aforesaid Narasin--garow that if he will not conduct himself care-fully and zealously in the circar duties of Bellan-
